THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

The Brenda Frese Era Begins!

Hanging With the Terps!

WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

2002-03 Season Outlook

Embarking on a new era, Maryland's women's basketball will undergo its biggest changes in over two decades. This year, the Terps begin their season in a new building and will be the first team, men's or women's, to play a game in the Comcast Center. Walking the sideline in the state-of-the-art building will be first-year head coach Brenda Frese, only the third coach in Maryland history. In light of those changes, it's easy to see why Terp fans have a high level of excitement and anticipation for the upcoming season.

The New Coaching Staff

Frese and her staff have their work cut out for them, but if there's a group of people up to the task of revitalizing the Maryland program, it's these five. Frese's staff organized the best turnaround in the Big Ten history last season, taking a Minnesota program that was 8-20 to a 22-8 record in 2001-02. Named the 2002 Associated Press Coach of the Year for her success at Minnesota, she brought her entire Gopher staff with her to Maryland to try the same feat two years in a row.

Joining Frese is seven-year assistant coach Jeff Walz, four-year assistant coach Marsha Frese (Brenda Frese's younger sister), and Erica Floyd, a nine-year assistant coaching veteran. Director of Basketball Operations Mark Pearson also packed his bags and joined Frese in College Park to begin anew again, this time with the Terps.

The Pieces Of The Puzzle

Similarly to her start at Minnesota last season, Frese has her work cut out for her again, inheriting a Maryland program that went 12-17, finished eighth in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings and graduated five seniors from its roster.

No stranger to taking over difficult situations after not only turning around the Golden Gopher program, but also Ball State's women's basketball program the two years prior, Frese is up for the challenge.

"It's definitely going to be a rebuilding period for us after losing five seniors," said Frese. "We're going to have to use this year to teach and coach fundamentals with so many young, inexperienced players. With that approach, we're really going to be able to start building the foundation of this program."

Position-By-Position

Guards

Senior Renneika Razor, one of two returning Terrapin starters, will be asked to carry most of the load during the 2002-03 season with the departure of All-ACC guard and No. 7 all-time scorer Marché Strickland. Razor brings a dynamic, athletic presence showcased by quick hands on the steal and a slashing style down the lane. A 2002 ACC all-defense team choice, the New York native averaged 2.1 steals per game and returns as the Terps' top scorer (8.2 points per game) and rebounder (4.5 rebounds per game).

Joining Razor at the guard spot is fellow senior Terri Daniels. Daniels, a graduate of nearby St. Mary's in Annapolis, is one of the Terps' best three-point shooters in program history. Daniels sits at the No. 5 spot for 3-point field goals made (59) and attempted (150). She is also among the Terps' best ever in 3-point field goal percentage (.393).

Frese has stated the leadership of both senior guards, as well as classmate Brie Jackson will be a key part to developing such a young team.

Terri Daniels

Junior point guard Vicki Brick returns as the Terps' floor general and with increased shooting confidence, will be able to both distribute the ball as well as score points herself. Brick took her second tour of duty as Maryland's starting point guard last season after a one-year rehabilitation of a torn anterior cruciate ligament. Brick returned strong as ever, and remains one of the most physically fit Terps, which will benefit her on-court time. She led the ACC last season in assists-to-turnover ratio (1.95).

Anesia Smith rounds out the Terps' guard rotation, which will be the team's strongest area this season. Smith exploded in her first two collegiate games last season, averaging 18.5 points per game and giving Terrapin fans a glimpse of her potential. With her quickness and agility, Smith will be one of the Terps' harassers on defense and will add to her shooting ability a slashing, penetrating angle to her game.

Forwards and Centers

Playing at both forward and center is junior Crystal Washington. The six-foot, two-inch Washington has shown marked improvement with increased playing time last season. With the departure of No. 6 all-time scorer and top 10 all-time rebounder Deedee Warley, she should see more court time than ever this season.

Past Washington's presence, the Terps' interior is a largely unknown commodity and will be Frese's biggest challenge. A trio of six-footers don Terps' uniforms this season for the first time: Charmaine Carr, Angel Ross, and Vanessa Ruffin. Six-foot, five-inch Carr should have the most impact, but all three will have to hit the ground running in order for the Terps to be successful this season in the incredibly competitive ACC.

Joining Washington at the forward position, senior Brie Jackson rounds out her Terrapin career this season on the blocks. Jackson can provide most of the intangibles to the Terps and will need to be a leader for the transition to be a smooth one. New Jersey freshman Chrissy Fisher will, like Carr, need to develop quickly for the Terps.

With the departure of four post players last season, Maryland's development into a complete team will hinge on the forward and center positions and how quickly the young players at those spots come along.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

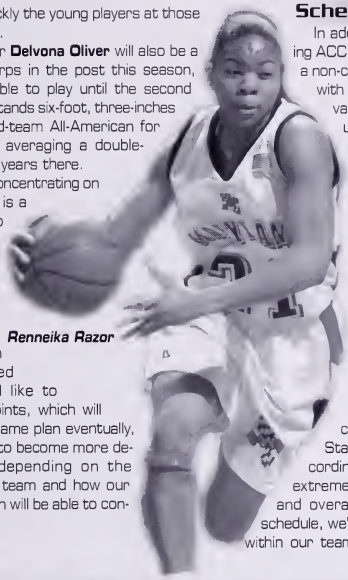
Junior-transfer Delvona Oliver will also be a factor for the Terps in the post this season, but won't be eligible to play until the second semester. Oliver stands six-foot, three-inches and was a second-team All-American for Cincinnati State, averaging a double-double in her two years there.

"I really think concentrating on the fundamentals is a step we want to take first and foremost with this group, especially being so young," commented Frese.



Renneika Razor

"Overall, I'm an offensive-oriented type of coach. I like to score a lot of points, which will definitely be our game plan eventually, but we may need to become more defense-oriented depending on the strengths of our team and how our incoming freshmen will be able to contribute as well."

Schedule

In addition to the always-challenging ACC schedule, the Terrapins have a non-conference schedule complete with national powers and local rivals to round out their schedule.

"I'm excited that we have quite a few home games at the new Comcast Center, and to host our own tournament will be a big advantage," said Frese. "We've got a tough non-conference schedule, going to Penn State as well as playing Virginia Tech at home."

In addition to the Hokies and Nittany Lions, Maryland is Miami-bound after Christmas to the Gatorade Holiday Classic, which includes host Miami, Cleveland State, and William & Mary. According to Frese, "Miami will be an extremely competitive tournament, and overall with our non-conference schedule, we're looking to build confidence within our team, trying to incorporate our system and seeing how quickly our players are able to adapt to the new system. It's a nice schedule because we'll have some games with schools nearby like Loyola, UMBC, and Coppin State, so it'll be a good a mix of both local and national teams."

Comcast Center

The setting for the 2002-03 season will be the state-of-the-art Comcast Center with room for up to 17,950. Maryland's new on-campus facility will rival any in the ACC with new lockerroom, training room, and lounge facilities, administration and coaches' offices, and countless amenities that will benefit both the players and the fans.

"It's an exciting era, building the foundation of this program with this coaching change and opening this season in the Comcast Center, which is a state-of-the-art facility," said Frese.

"It's going to be one of the most prominent facilities in the country and I'm just excited about opening up this brand new season with all the changes in a brand new facility."

WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

Preseason Notebook

The Beginning of a New Era

Welcome to the Comcast Center... Maryland held the grand opening for the new home of women's and men's basketball on Oct. 10 when the university celebrated the official ribbon-cutting at the Comcast Center. New head coach Brenda Frese lined up with Maryland Govenor Parris Glendening, University President C.D. "Dan" Mote, men's basketball bench boss Gary Williams, Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow, and many others to address the crowd of over 1,200 invitees to the grand opening celebration.

The Comcast Center's seating capacity will be an outstanding 17,950 with the building including such amenities as:

- Eight-sided video scoreboard
- Weight Training and Conditioning Area and Sports Medicine/Training Area
- Auxiliary Gymnasium with room for two full courts that will serves as the competition site for gymnastics, women's volleyball and wresting.
- Media Relations Center
- Heritage Hall Multi-Purpose Room, which seats 400 for a reception and 200 for a sit-down dinner
- Academic Support and Career Development Center for Student-Athletes (7,000 square feet)
- Terps Merchandise Store

Frese Named Third Head Coach For Maryland Women

Frese

Maryland introduced 2002 AP National Coach of the Year Brenda Frese as the third women's basketball coach all-time on April 2, 2002.

Frese brings a history of turning programs around with her to Maryland. Frese began her head coaching career at Ball State in 1999 and took a program that had been 66-169 in the past nine seasons to records of 16-3 and 19-9 and two NCAA tournaments before moving to Minnesota in 2001.

At Minnesota, Frese orchestrated the best one-year turnaround in Big Ten history, taking a team that had gone 8-20 in 2000-01 and guiding them to a 22-8 record last season. Her turnaround heroics ended in the NCAA second round against the ACC's own North Carolina Tar Heels, but her amazing reversal of Minnesota's fortunes still earned Frese AP National Coach of the Year honors.

Great Beginnings

Maryland's women's basketball team will always hold the distinction of playing the first-ever basketball game in the Comcast Center, men's or women's, when it hosts Loyola on Nov. 22. That game begins at 7 p.m.

The Terrapin women open the exhibition season first as well, hosting Basketball Travelers on Nov. 9 at 7 p.m.

Maryland On TV

Maryland will be on television at least four times this season as part of the ACC women's basketball television schedule. The Terps' first televised game will be the Jan. 19 game at Virginia with a start time of 1 p.m. The remainder of the Terps' television schedule is below, including two home games, which will afford Maryland fans throughout ACC country to take a peek inside the Comcast Center.

Maryland's Television Games

J19	at Virginia *	1:00 p.m.
J27	NORTH CAROLINA *	7:00 p.m.
F16	at Florida State *	1:00 p.m.
F24	DUKE *	7:00 p.m.

Terps' Radio Coverage

Nearly every Maryland game this season will be carried over the air by either the Terrapin Sports Network or Maryland's student radio station, WMUC. This year, the Maryland women welcome back Johnny Holliday, the Voice of the Terps, as the play-by-play announcer for Maryland.

Games carried on the Terrapin Sports Network can be heard on affiliates throughout the Maryland and Baltimore areas. Maryland games, road and home, that are broadcast by WMUC can be heard on 88.1 FM as well as on the web at www.wmuc.com and www.wmucsports.com.

Welcome Back!

Razor

Maryland has two starters and four other letterwinners returning to the squad this season. Senior Renneika Razor (New York, N.Y.), a member of the ACC's all-defense team last season, is back to lead a host of talented starting guards for the Terps. Razor averaged 8.2 ppg last season and grabbed 4.5 rpg. She is on pace to land among the Terps' best ever in steals (averaging 2.1 per game last year) and also pitched in 2.5 assists per game last season. She started 27 out of 30 Terps' games.

Brick

Junior Vicki Brick (Timonium, Md.) is the only non-senior returning to the starting lineup. Brick was the ACC's leader in assist-to-turnover ratio, 1.95, and was the team's starting point guard once again. Brick was a freshman sensation at the point guard slot for the Terps before tearing her ACL before the 2000-01 season. She was back again last season and will be the Terrapins' floor leader once again this season. In 2001-02, she averaged 3.7 apg and 2.0 spg. Additionally, she added 4.7 ppg and 2.2 rpg for Maryland last season.

Daniels

Senior Terri Daniels (Ellicott City, Md.), one of Maryland's most proficient 3-point shooters of all time, can also be looked on as a returning starter in some ways because of her extensive playing experience. Daniels started 10 games last season for Maryland and posted averages of 4.6 ppg and 4.5 rpg. She ranked among the best in ACC games in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.43) and drained .359 of her 3-point attempts last season.

Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md.), a junior forward, Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va.), a member of last year's ACC rookie team, and senior Brie Jackson (Silver Spring, Md.) make up the Terps' three other players returning to the roster this season.

Oliver Joins Terps

Oliver

2002 AP National Coach of the Year Brenda Frese added her first recruit to the Terrapin women's basketball roster in 6-3 junior college transfer Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio). Oliver, a center from Cincinnati State Technical and Community College, enrolled in summer classes at Maryland and should provide and interior boost to the Terps' lineup.

"Delvona is going to have an immediate effect on the post presence for us with her experience," said Frese. "She'll be able to come in and have an impact for us this season."

Oliver earned second-team All-America recognition from the National Junior College Athletic Association and averaged 18.1 points, 10.5 rebounds and 2.5 blocks per game in the 2000-01 season. She earned most valuable player honors at the Ohio Community College Athletic Conference postseason tournament. Oliver, who is practicing with the team, will not be eligible to play until the second semester.

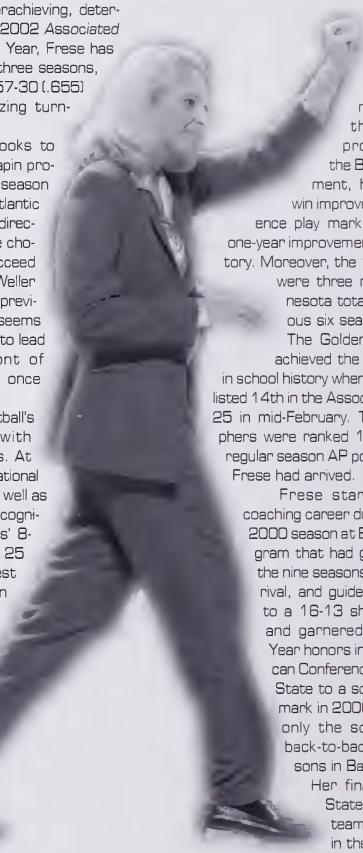
Brenda Frese has received high praise and numerous accolades during her young coaching career. People have described the 32-year-old head coach as dynamic, overachieving, determined and enthusiastic. The 2002 Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Frese has been a head coach for only three seasons, accumulating an astounding 57-30 (.655) record, while making amazing turnarounds her calling card.

This season, Frese looks to breathe life back into a Terrapin program that went 13-17 last season and finished eighth in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Athletics director Debbie Yow couldn't have chosen a better candidate to succeed 27-year head coach Chris Weller than Frese, who after two previous head coaching positions seems poised to be the next legend to lead Maryland to the forefront of women's college basketball once again.

One of college basketball's rising stars, Frese fits with Maryland's legacy of success. At Minnesota, she earned AP National Coach of the Year honors as well as Big Ten Coach of the Year recognition for turning the Gophers' 8-20 program into a 22-8 Top 25 contender. One of the biggest one-season turnarounds in NCAA history, Minnesota set a school record with 22 wins and tied for second in the Big Ten with an 11-5 conference mark. Frese also took the Gophers to what was only the school's second NCAA appearance. The Golden Gophers were seeded fifth in the NCAA Tournament and defeated UNLV in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before being eliminated by three points in the second round by North Carolina, a team Frese will have a chance to go head-to-head with this season as part of the ACC slate.



Frese's revitalization of the Minnesota program rocked the Big Ten establishment, her team's 10-win improvement in conference play marking the biggest one-year improvement in Big Ten history. Moreover, the 11 Big Ten wins were three more than Minnesota totaled in the previous six seasons combined. The Golden Gophers also achieved the highest ranking in school history when Minnesota was listed 14th in the Associated Press Top 25 in mid-February. The Golden Gophers were ranked 18th in the final regular season AP poll. Undoubtedly, Frese had arrived.

Frese started her head coaching career during the 1999-2000 season at Ball State, a program that had gone 66-169 in the nine seasons prior to her arrival, and guided the Cardinals to a 16-13 showing in 2000 and garnered Coach of the Year honors in the Mid-American Conference. Frese led Ball State to a school-best 19-9 mark in 2000-01, capturing only the school's second back-to-back winning seasons in Ball State history. Her final year at Ball State, the 2000-01 team received votes in the AP poll, climbing as high as No. 28 in the country.

Frese's enthusiam has been contagious for the fans of her teams as well, as support increased significantly at both Minnesota and Ball State under her leadership. Buoyed by the best start (9-1) in school history last season, the Golden Gophers finished the season ranked 19th nationally in home attendance average (4,360), including an average of 8,828 fans during the second half of the campaign when the team moved to Williams Arena from the Sports Pavilion. The Gophers attracted the top four crowds in school history, including a record attendance of 12,142 vs. Michigan State and a crowd of 11,389 vs. Indiana. Frese's 2000-01 Ball State team posted a 10-2 home record and set a single-season home attendance record.

She launched her Division I coaching career in 1994 as an assistant coach at Kent State University, helping the Golden Flashes to records of 20-8 (1994) and 17-10 (1995) during her two years there. The Cedar Rapids, Iowa native then joined Bill Fennelly's staff at Iowa State as the Cyclones' recruiting coordinator where she assisted in another impressive turnaround, helping ISU to three NCAA Tournament appearances in four years. All told, the Cyclones posted a composite record of 84-38 with Frese as an assistant, including a 17-10 record in 1995-96 when Iowa State recorded the biggest one-season turnaround in school history. In 1997, the Cyclones made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament, a feat they duplicated in 1998 and 1999 with identical 25-8 records. In 1999, Iowa State was ranked among the nation's top 25 for the entire season and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

During her stay at Iowa State, her 1998-99 recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top 10, and the Cyclones enjoyed tremendous success at the gate, drawing a record crowd of 12,337 vs. Santa Clara in the first round of an NCAA Tournament game played in Ames, Iowa, and rewriting Iowa State's single-season attendance mark multiple times.

Frese is a 1993 graduate of the University of Arizona, where she was a four-year forward and three-year letterwinner for the Wildcats. When injuries sidelined her during her senior season, she joined the Pima Community College coaching staff in Tucson, Ariz., as an assistant coach in charge of recruiting and scouting. Aside from her bachelor's degree in communications from Arizona in 1993, she also earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Kent State in 1995.

What They Are Saying About Coach Brenda Frese...

"Coach Frese has a superb record of achievement as a head coach in two different Division I conferences. She is an over-achiever ... a dynamic and determined leader as a coach. Over time, she will put our program in a position to compete for the national championship as one of the elite women's basketball programs in the country."

—Maryland Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow

"Brenda is one of the bright young coaches in the game today. Maryland is very fortunate. She'll do an unbelievable job of adding to the great tradition that Chris Weller had started there."

—National Champion Connecticut Head Coach Geno Auriemma

"Brenda is one of the young dynamic coaches in the game. Obviously, with my being an Old Dominion player, I have known of the Maryland program for years and where it has been and what it has achieved. If you give Brenda time, she will make Maryland one of the top teams not only in the ACC, but I think Maryland has the potential to be a top-10 team for a long time to come."

—Basketball Hall of Famer and ESPN Basketball Analyst Nancy Lieberman

"Brenda is a proven coach. I'm excited about her youth and enthusiasm. I think she's going to do a tremendous job for Maryland. I congratulate her and I look forward to her being able to make the same type of turnaround she made with the Minnesota program."

—ESPN Basketball Analyst Vera Jones

"Brenda is definitely one of the brightest young coaches in America. She's a great student of the game. She will be very successful at Maryland."

—Arizona Head Coach Joan Bonvicini

"I think this is a great hire for the University of Maryland. Brenda will do a great job of continuing the great tradition of Maryland basketball. She is outstanding in all areas needed to lead a program to national prominence. She is hard working and extremely organized. She knows what it takes to find players that can succeed at this level."

—Iowa State Head Coach Bill Fennelly

"I think the University of Maryland made a good choice in hiring Brenda. She is obviously an up-and-coming coach and she did a great job at the University of Minnesota while she was there. She worked for me so I feel I know her a little better than some other people. I think she will do a great job there, I think it was a good hire and I think that five years down the road, the University of Maryland will have a very good team on their hands."

—Kent State Head Coach Bob Lindsay

"Brenda brought life to the potential that we all knew this team, program and community had. We thank her for bringing that potential to life and wish her well. I know she'll be a great coach at Maryland."

—Minnesota Women's Athletics Director Chris Voelz

After seven years of collegiate coaching experience, Jeff Walz joins the Terrapins after stints at Minnesota, Nebraska and Western Kentucky. Walz's career highlights include helping to guide his teams to five NCAA tournaments and one WNIT appearance.

A scholarship player for Northern Kentucky from 1990-93, Walz was with new Terps' head coach Brenda Frese at Minnesota for one year after coaching for four seasons at Nebraska. At Minnesota, Walz worked with the posts and centers, including Big Ten freshman of the year Janel McCarville. Walz also took on scouting and recruiting efforts for the Gophers during the staff's 22-8 season.

While with the Cornhuskers from 1997-2001, Walz was involved with all aspects of the program from coordinating the Huskers' recruiting efforts to tracking student-athletes' academics to scheduling and camps. Walz helped Nebraska to three straight NCAA tournament appearances (1998, 1999, 2000), a school record, and also coached the L.A. Sparks No. 1 draft pick in the in 2000 WNBA Draft, Nicole Kubik. By his final year at Nebraska, Walz was in charge of conducting individual development workout as well as opponent scouting.

Walz began his collegiate coaching career at Western Kentucky in 1996 after serving as the team's administrative assistant the previous season. He started coaching at the middle and high school levels in 1992 and was an AAU coach from 1995-96. During his career he has guided such players as 1999 NCAA champion and WNBA standout Ukari Figgs, University of Tennessee's Kyra Elzy, Ohio State standout Marita Porter and 1996 national high school player of the year Jaime Walz, his sister, who now coaches the girl's high school team at their alma mater, Highlands High School.

He attended Northern Kentucky University on a basketball scholarship, graduating with a bachelor of science in May 1995. Walz earned his master's in education in August of 2000 from Western Kentucky.

Walz resides in Crofton, Md., and was recently engaged to Kim Kumfer.

Maryland women's basketball became a true "family affair" when Marsha Frese joined the Terrapin staff as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. Frese, the sister of head coach, Brenda Frese, was hired in April and coordinates all recruiting efforts for Terrapin women's basketball. The sisters not only grew up and won a state high school championship together, they've also coached together at two previous stops: Minnesota and Ball State.

During her stay with the Golden Gophers, Frese helped key one of the biggest turnarounds in women's NCAA history. Despite Minnesota's 8-20 record the previous season, Frese coordinated efforts that brought in the No. 15 recruiting class according to Blue Star Basketball, including the state's Ms. Minnesota Basketball. Frese also worked with the perimeter players at Minnesota, including third-team All-American and Big Ten player of the year, Lindsay Whalen. The Golden Gophers finished the 2001-02 season ranked seventh nationally in scoring and advanced to the second round of the 2002 NCAA tournament.

Frese began her coaching career at Ball State where she served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Cardinals from 1999-2001. She recruited MAC freshman of the year Johna Goff and coached 2000-01 MAC player of the year Ta'Mara Bowie. Frese guided the Cardinals' perimeter efforts to a rank of eighth nationally, averaging 7.3 three-pointers per game.

Before beginning her coaching career, Frese was the first female on-air sports anchor for KALB-TV in Alexandria, La., from 1996-99. She earned her bachelor's degree in communications from Rice University in 1995 and was a four-year letterwinner for the Owls. In high school, Frese was named 1990 Miss Iowa Basketball by USA Today and Gatorade Circle of Champions. She still ranks among Iowa's all-time leading high school scorers in the five-player game.

Frese exchanged marital vows with Jason Elliott on June 1, 2002. The couple resides in Columbia, Md.

Ohio State standout and nine-year assistant coaching veteran Erica Floyd completed Brenda Frese's sideline staff when she, too, made the move from Minnesota to Maryland with Frese. Floyd coached with Frese both at Minnesota last season and during her stint at and Kent State.

At Minnesota, Floyd assisted not only in on- and off-campus recruiting, but also with scouting and film breakdown. The position coach for forwards and centers, she helped guide Big Ten freshman of year Janel McCarville, and also led the Gophers' community service efforts. Minnesota experienced the biggest one-year turnaround in Big Ten history in Floyd's year there, going 22-8 after inheriting a program that had been 8-20 the previous season.

She called Cleveland State home from 1998-2001 and served the Viking program in all capacities. Floyd coached Audra Cook, 2000 Mid-Western Conference Player of the Year, while at Cleveland State and was in charge of coordinating team travel and assisting in recruiting efforts both on and off campus. She continued to lend her experience to the forwards and centers and also aided in monitoring academics, scouting, and coordinated summer camps.

Her first coaching job came at Kent State from 1994-98 where she coached alongside Frese, who was an assistant at the time. A position coach for forwards and centers, she assisted with various aspects of the program including coordinating team travel, scouting and summer camps. A Kent native, she also served as the school's assistant marketing director from 1995-98.

Floyd played at Ohio State from 1989-92, graduating with a bachelor of science in education in 1993. She was on the Buckeye team that shared the 1989 Big Ten title, and as a captain her senior season was also voted most improved player. Following her senior year of high school, Floyd was named the 1988 Gatorade Ohio high school player of the year.

Floyd is single and resides in Columbia, Md.

Head coach Brenda Frese took care of all the details when she built her staff at Minnesota, and brought her winning formula intact to Maryland, including Director of Basketball Operations Mark Pearson. Pearson will oversee the general operations of the basketball program, especially the planning of team travel.

Pearson was also at Minnesota with Frese and handled team travel, scheduling practices, coordinating camps and assisting with community service. His experience before Minnesota was vast and varied, including knowledge of both the business and the coaching worlds.

Prior to joining the Gophers' athletic department, Pearson spent two years in the sales department of Reuters, Inc., in Ankeny, Iowa. From 1997-99, he was an assistant basketball coach at Iowa Central Community College and was involved in everything from recruiting and scouting, to summer camps, to overseeing student-athletes' academic performances.

He spent two years as an Iowa Central Junior College player before continuing his education at Iowa State, after spending two years at Iowa Central. He served as a graduate assistant and manager of the Cyclone men's basketball team from 1993-97. During that time, Iowa State made three trips to the NCAA Tournament, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 1997.

Pearson earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Iowa State in 1996. He has completed master's courses in Sport Management from Iowa State and is working to complete his final project.

Pearson and his wife Jennifer reside in Laurel, Md. Their son B.J. celebrated his first birthday on March 1, 2001.

The Comcast Report On Vicki

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
I was in awe. I love the way the floor feels and how comfortable I feel on the floor. Even though the Comcast Center seats about three thousand more people than Cole Field House, it doesn't feel that much bigger when I'm on the floor.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
The way she runs practices, and the way she handles us like players and people.

How did you feel at Midnight Madness?
I was excited to see what the place felt like when the seats are filled.

Why should people come to a Maryland women's basketball game this season?
Because we are going to be one fun team to watch and the Comcast Center is one of the best arenas in the country to watch basketball, so the atmosphere will be unbelievable.

Frese On Brick

"Vicki is going to be a great floor general for us. She will lead us from the point guard position this season. We're going to ask her to run the team and set up the offense as well as be a scoring option herself. Vicki is also in great physical condition, which will allow her to play a lot of minutes."

Noteable

Entering the 2002-03 season, she is 13th on Maryland's all-time steals chart with 154 ... Parents are owners of Baltimore-area "Brick Bodies" health clubs ... majoring in kinesiology ... had planned to give up basketball in order to pursue a long-time goal of playing professional tennis, but chose to give up tennis instead.

2001-02

Brick returned to the court after an ACL tear before the 1999-2000 season ... posted averages of 4.7 points, 2.0 assists and 2.2 rebounds ... started 19 games ... 1.95 assists to turnover ratio, which was among the best in the ACC all season ... career-high 12 assists in 40 minutes against Florida State ... third-best percentage from the free throw line for the Terps at .741 (43-58) ... in her debut after tearing her ACL in September of 2000, she was a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor in the Terps' season opener vs. Coppin State hitting 5-of-6 from the free throw line, while grabbing a season-high six rebounds, dishing five assists, amassing five steals and scoring a season-high 13 points ... scored 12 points in the Terps' ACC tournament first round match-up with Wake Forest, including a 6-of-8 performance from behind the charity stripe ... netted 12 points against IPFW and Georgia Tech, and scored 10 points on a 4-5 shooting performance against Penn State.

2000-01

Redshirted after an ACL tear in September.

1999-00

A 26-game starter at point guard during her freshman season ... led the Terrapins and the ACC in steals with 3.1 per game ... paced the Terps in assists with 4.3 per game, ranking fourth in the ACC ... her 95 steals and 133 assists ranked as the second- and third-best efforts, respectively, by a freshman in ACC history ... her freshman steals and assists per game averages also both rank third in ACC history ... named MVP of the Terrapin Classic, which included a career-high 19-point, nine-rebound, seven-steal performance in the Terps' first-round victory over Coppin State.

Before Maryland

Brick graduated from McDonogh High School where she guided the Eagles to 44 straight victories to end her career ... she was a four-time All-Met selection who helped McDonogh to four league titles and consecutive state championships ... team was 26-0 as a senior while ranked among USA Today's Top 25 ... 88-8 career record and 49-1 in final two seasons ... 23-1 as a junior, 22-2 as a sophomore and 18-5 as a freshman ... four-year starter who took McDonogh to a No. 5 state ranking as a freshman ... career averages of 20.2 points, 5.6 steals, 4.0 assists and 4.8 rebounds ... Gatorade Maryland player of the year and Miss Maryland Basketball as chosen by the Maryland WBCA ... Miss Maryland Basketball for underclassmen as a junior ... WBCA honorable mention All-American ... had career-bests of 40 points, 19 steals, 13 assists and 10 rebounds ... AAU All-American with the Maryland Tornados and Philadelphia Belles ... toured with the Belles in Europe and Russia ... attended same school as former Terrapin and current pro Sonia Chase ... high school coach was Katie Keating who says, "She works harder at basketball than anyone I've ever seen. When we had a day off, she would call and ask for keys to the gym."

The Comcast Report On Terri

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
That I am extremely blessed to be able to play in such an arena.

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center and why?
The locker room because it's my second home.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
Her confidence and enthusiam.

What is one thing about this team that people would be surprised or interested to know about.
That we are active members of the community.

Frese On Daniels

"Terri is an extremely hard worker and is someone who is going to provide great senior leadership for us. She will be our outside shooting threat this season beyond the arc."

Daniels enters the season fifth on Maryland's career list for 3-point field goals made (59) and attempted (150) and fourth in 3-point field goal percentage (.393, 59-150).

2001-02

Led the team in 3-point shooting again, this time hitting 28-of-78 for the year (.359), and sinking 15-of-26 attempts in conference games ... tallied averages of 4.6 points, 2.1 rebounds, and 2.7 assists per game in 30 appearances and got the starting nod 10 times ... second on the team in 3-point field goal attempts with 2.6 per game ... 1.37 assist-to-turnover ratio ... she continued to improve in her third year with the Terps, setting or tying new career highs in seven categories including points (17), field goal percentage (6-6, 1.000), minutes (38) ... against Georgia Tech, Daniels scored a season-high 17 points on 4-of-7 shooting (including 4-5 from beyond the arc) and 5-of-6 shooting from behind the free throw line in 38 minutes of action ... tallied 13 points on 5-of-10 shooting and grabbed three rebounds against Clemson.

2000-01

Averaged 4.6 ppg and 1.5 rpg in 29 games, starting 13 ... shot a stellar 47 percent from 3-point range, a single-season school record ... executed a perfect shooting game, going 5-of-5 from beyond the arc (1.000) and 6-of-6 from the field in her outstanding 17-point effort at Wake Forest ... reset nearly every career high from her freshman season ... Daniels had a career-high 12 assists, the most of any Terrapin in 2000-01, against Coppin State ... started 13 of the Terps' first 15 games, including contributing to Maryland's 6-0 start ... doubled her playing time from her freshman season, going from 11.4 mpg her first season to 25.1 mpg ... Daniels helped fill in at the point guard spot after 1999-2000 starter Vicki Brick went down with an injury just before the season began ... had a 1.15 assist-to-turnover ratio, which was consistently among the top 10 in the league ... averaged 3.4 apg, also tops in the ACC, and added 1.1 steals per game ... her 25 3-pointers ranked seventh on Maryland's single-season charts.

One of three freshman guards who helped spur the 2000 turnaround ... played in 29 games, averaging 11.4 minutes ... posted averages of 2.4 points, 1.1 rebounds and 1.7 assists off the bench ... career-high 10 points at NC State included a 3-for-5 shooting effort from the floor and a pair of 3-pointers ... career-high six assists and 23 minutes to go along with seven points in Maryland's victory over Brown at the Gatorade Hurricane Holiday Classic in Miami ... ran the point during much of the second half during that contest ... finished her freshman campaign ranked fourth in the ACC with a 1.41 assist-to-turnover ratio ... had a stretch of eight games where she committed only one turnover, and led the ACC in assist-to-turnover ratio for most of the season.

Before Maryland

Daniels graduated from St. Mary's High School in Annapolis where she lettered all four seasons in basketball ... played all five positions on the floor at one time or another at St. Mary's ... averaged 11.8 points, 9.2 rebounds, 8.8 assists, 3.1 steals and 2.0 blocks during a senior season in which the Saints finished 29-5 ... team was 28-6 as a junior, 27-4 as a sophomore and 26-3 as a freshman ... had eight triple-doubles in high school and set a school record with 16 assists in a game ... second-leading assist-maker in school history (647) ... scored 1,041 points in her career ... honorable mention All-American and all-state ... three-time all-county and All-Met selection ... twice named to the All-Catholic League ... Capital-Gazette senior all-star game MVP ... highlight of her senior season was a three-game run at the IAABO Christmas Tournament held at Prince George's College ... scored 35 points with 22 rebounds, 18 assists, nine steals and seven blocks while going undefeated in three games ... came back from a 20-point halftime deficit to defeat Largo at the buzzer, 67-66, in the championship game ... lettered in softball as a freshman, playing shortstop and leading the county in home runs in her only season ... chose AAU basketball over softball ... also played lacrosse, soccer and swam as a youngster ... high school coach was Harry Dobson.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

Terri Daniels showcases Maryland's new locker room facilities in Comcast Center. The large wooden lockers and spacious team locker room area adjoin the team's lounge area where the Terrapins can meet and watch film on a large video projection screen.

The Comcast Report On Brie

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
Its size impressed me, it looked like a professional arena.

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center and why?
The locker room because it's cozy.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
She gains your respect through admiration, not fear.

How did you feel at Midnight Madness?
It was exciting.

Why should people come to a Maryland women's basketball game this season?
Because we will be good.

Tell me one thing about this team that people would be surprised or interested to know about.
We all enjoy each other's company.

Frese On Jackson

"Brie is a hard worker and embraces her role on the team with a tremendous amount of energy and dedication. She will also provide us with quality senior leadership."

2001-02

In a reserve role, played in five non-conference games, averaging 0.6 points and 0.8 rebounds ... season-high two assists in eight minutes against Loyola ... went 1-of-2 from the floor in the Loyola, Morgan State and IPFW games.

2000-01

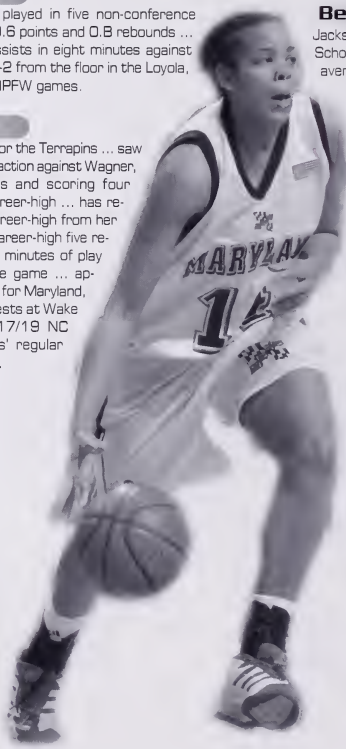
A reserve forward for the Terrapins ... saw her most extensive action against Wagner, playing 13 minutes and scoring four points to tie her career-high ... has reset or tied every career-high from her freshman year ... career-high five rebounds came in six minutes of play in the Coppin State game ... appeared in six games for Maryland, including ACC contests at Wake Forest and No. 17/19 NC State in the Terps' regular season home finale.

1999-00

Saw limited action in six non-conference games ... contributed a season-high four points vs. Brown at the Gatorade Hurricane Holiday Classic in Miami ... grabbed four rebounds on the year ... was a perfect 2-for-2 in free throw attempts.

Before Maryland

Jackson graduated from The Bullis School in Potomac, Md., where she averaged 13 points and nine rebounds in 1998-99 ... she was a four-year letterwinner while helping her team to a 96-23 record in her career ... 26-4 as a senior, 20-10 as a junior ... league champs both seasons ... team captain of Maryland vs. Virginia prep all-star game ... all-tournament at the IAABO Christmas Tournament ... coached by Wayne Ferrell and Cedric Boatman.



THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

Brie Jackson checks out the Terps' Wall of Fame and History in the Comcast Center's lobby. New head coach Brenda Frese as well as numerous other former and current Terrapin standouts are pictured on the wall and are honored throughout the building's new displays and trophy cases.

The Comcast Report On Renneika

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?

I couldn't believe that I actually had the opportunity to play in the arena. What impressed me most was that the men's and women's locker rooms were exactly the same.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?

She's a motivational coach. She inspires you to come out and work hard every day.

How did you feel at Midnight Madness?

I felt somewhat excited and sad at the same time. Excited because we were the first team to open up in Comcast, but sad because this was my last Midnight Madness.

Frese On Razor

"Renneika is just a phenomenal athlete. We're looking at her to provide us with tremendous senior leadership. She probably has the best all-around game, both offensively and defensively, so we'll be counting on her for a lot."

2001-02

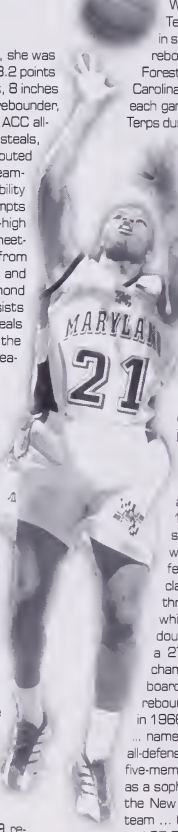
A starter in 28 of the Terps' 30 games, she was Maryland's third-leading scorer averging 8.2 points per game ... despite standing only 5 feet, 8 inches tall, Razor was Maryland's third-leading rebounder, grabbing 4.5 rebounds per game ... an ACC all-defense team pick, she led the team in steals, averaging 2.1 per game ... also contributed 2.5 assists per game and averaged a team-high 28.8 minutes ... her penetrating ability and quick first step earned her 100 attempts from the free throw line ... her season-high 16-point efforts came in the Terps' two meetings with Duke ... went 5-of-6 (.833) from the floor against Duke and NC State, and posted a 6-of-9 (.667) effort vs. Richmond ... dished out a career-high seven assists vs. Penn State ... season-high five steals vs. Richmond ... hit double figures in the scoring column 13 times and tallied a season-high eight rebounds five times.

2000-01

A reserve forward for seven of the Terps' first eight games, Razor was a fixture in the starting lineup for 19 of the last 20 games ... averaged 2.32 steals, fourth-best in the ACC ... she plays deceptively tall for her 5-8 frame in the forward position ... used her incredible athleticism to become one of the Terps' top two rebounders all year ... possessed explosive speed ... averaged almost 10 ppg, which was third-best on the team ... her 134 free throw attempts tied her for 10th all-time on the Terps' single-season charts.

1999-00

True freshman guard who played all five positions on the floor at one point or another ... appeared in every game, logged two starts and averaged 18.9 minutes ... was a valuable Terp "sixth man," among team leaders in points (5th), rebounds (T-3rd), assists (5th) and steals (3rd) ... averaged 6.6 points, 3.9 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.6 steals per game ... scored six points, collected two rebounds, registered two blocks and grabbed three steals in a 19-minute stretch to help Maryland come back against and eventually defeat Virginia Tech in the WNIT second-round game ... recorded a double-double with 13 points and 11 boards in Maryland's 73-61 win at Wake Forest ... was the high scorer for the Terps in three games and the high rebounder in six contests ... averaged 11 points and eight rebounds over a four-game stretch vs. Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, St. Bonaventure and North Carolina, pacing Maryland in scoring or rebounding each game ... poured in 11 straight points for the Terps during the second half vs. Clemson on Feb. 6.



Before Maryland

Graduated from Cardinal Spellman High School in the Bronx, N.Y., where she was a member of the New York State all-star team and received all-city honors from the New York Post and New York Daily News ... all-around abilities are evidenced by an 18-point scoring average with 12 rebounds, 3.7 assists, 3.1 blocks and three steals per game ... first-team All-Gazette ... All-Met honorable mention player ... Washington Post player of the week ... ISL champions her freshman year, co-champs her sophomore campaign ... averaged 15 points and 11 rebounds as a junior ... 17.6 points, 15 rebounds as a sophomore ... finished her career at Cardinal Spellman as the third player in school history to score more than 1,500 points, and by season's end had also eclipsed 1,100 rebounds through three varsity seasons ... MVP of last year's 27-3 team which was the N.Y. Class "C" state champions and federation champions ... New York state class "D" champions as a sophomore ... in three years, Cardinal Spellman was 79-12 while Razor established a school mark for double-doubles ... one of her finest games was a 27-point, 21-rebound effort in the state championship game as a sophomore ... her 21 boards in that game tied the state record for rebounds in a championship game, set originally in 1966 ... MVP of N.Y. Slam-Jam summer league ... named to Slam Jam all-tournament team and all-defensive team ... two-time member of the Post's five-member all-city team ... a Daily News all-star as a sophomore, junior and senior ... co-captain of the New York State Federation class "C" all-star team ... Cardinal Spellman was 27-4 in 1997-98, and 25-5 in 1996-97 ... coached by Jane Morris.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

Renneika Razor stands at center court in the Comcast Center. The Terps' new facility holds 17,950 fans and is also equipped with 20 suites and a reception area, Nextel Heritage Hall. Despite the boost in capacity from Cole Field House, Maryland fans are still just as close to the floor in the Comcast Center.

The Comcast Report On Anesia

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
I thought it was big—I was kind of like 'WHOA'!!!!!!!

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center?
The jacuzzi in the training room.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
Constant positive reinforcement.

Why should people come to a Maryland women's basketball game this season?
Because we're going to be a lot better than everyone expects.

Frese On Smith

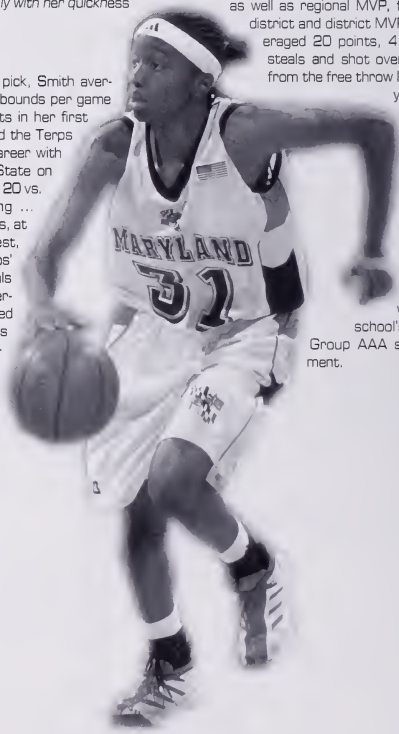
"Anesia is probably one of our quickest guards. She's extremely athletic, and is going to be a slasher-penetrating type of guard for us. She should be really active for us defensively with her quickness as well."

2001-02

An ACC all-freshmen team pick, Smith averaged 5.3 points and 1.8 rebounds per game ... she averaged 18.5 points in her first two collegiate games to lead the Terps to two wins, opening her career with 17 points against Coppin State on 6-of-10 shooting and netting 20 vs. Loyola on 7-of-14 shooting ... earned two conference starts, at Clemson and vs. Wake Forest, and played in 28 of the Terps' 30 games ... tallied 1.4 steals per game ... grabbed a career-high five rebounds and dished out a career-high five assists at NC State ... her career-high four steals came against Duke.

Before Maryland

The USA Today Virginia Player of the Year, she graduated from Hayfield High School ... she was a first team All-Met selection by the Washington Post as well as regional MVP, first team all-district and district MVP .. Smith averaged 20 points, 4 rebounds, 3 steals and shot over 60 percent from the free throw line her senior year ... led Hayfield to a 21-7 finish and took the team to the Northern Regional Tournament for the first time in school history ... the appearance was also the school's first in the Group AAA state tournament.



THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

Anesia Smith is standing in one of 20 suites in Maryland's new Comcast Center. Each suite has its own kitchen, bathroom, lounge area and seating area. Suites can accommodate anywhere from 16 to 30 people a game.

Frese On Washington

"We're really looking for Crystal to have strong play in the post for us and give us a big inside presence. She needs to become more physical to really dominate down low in the post. We're looking for Crystal to be a big, strong, type of post player who will both score and rebound well."

2001-02

Washington posted averages of 6.1 points and 2.2 rebounds per game in 20 appearances ... she led the team in blocked shots per game (0.8) and had five two-block games ... averaged 10.3 points over a four-game stretch, including 16 points against No. 22/21 Penn State to start the streak, continuing with 12 points and six rebounds vs. Morgan State, completing the stretch with 13- and 10-point outings vs. Eastern Michigan and Alabama in the Torneo Cancun de Basquetbol ... career-high three steals vs. Alabama, also in Cancun.

2000-01

Washington saw action in 11 games, with her career-high 13 minutes coming at Florida State and against Wagner ... scored a career-high seven points at the ACC tournament in Maryland's opening-round loss to No. 21/20 NC State ... she also made 5-of-6 free throws against the Wolfpack ... averaged 2.6 ppg and 2.0 rpg.

Before Maryland

Led Bishop McNamara in rebounding and was team MVP... averaged 18 points, 15 rebounds, six blocks and four assists per game ... 2000 senior all-star game ... second team all-conference ... named second team All-Washington Catholic Athletic Conference, honorable mention all-county and Washington Post All-Met following her junior campaign ... played AAU hoops for the PG County Sparks ... high school coach was Bob Dunmore.

The Comcast Report On Crystal

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
Wow- I am about to play in the best arena in the country!

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center?
The lockerroom

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
The way she believes in her players and motivates them.

Why should people come to a Maryland women's basketball game this season?
We are going to light up the court!

Tell me one thing about this team that people would be surprised or interested to know about...
How involved the coaches are when we work out.

Charmaine Carr

Freshman • Center • 6-1

Brandywine, Md.
Gwynn Park High School

32

Frese On Carr

"As a local talent, Charmaine came to Maryland with a lot of expectations on her. With a solid work ethic and a variety of moves in her arsenal, Charmaine is quickly going to become a fan favorite, not only because of where she is from but for what she brings to the table, as well. A good rebounder and someone who can get out and run in the open court, Charmaine fits in perfectly with the up-tempo style we love to play."

Before Maryland

Led Gwynn Park High School to its first girl's basketball state championship ... an All-Met selection by the Washington Post her senior year, she was also a two-time all-county selection ... she averaged 17 points, 10 rebounds and two blocks per game her senior year ... Gwynn Park's MVP her final two years, she set new school marks for points, rebounds and blocked shots ... she also played volleyball and softball in high school ... Carr picked Maryland after being recruited by conference-rivals Virginia and Georgia Tech, as well as Big Ten foe Penn State ... she was a member of the National Honor Society and a school peer mediator ... nicknamed Cee Cee ... high school coach was Dr. Marvin Vann.

The Comcast Report On Charmaine

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?

The first time I walked into the Comcast Center the first thing I thought was, that this is a huge place and it looks like it took a lot of money to build it. The thing that impressed me most was the huge video scoreboard above the floor. That's really high class.

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center and why?

My favorite place in the Comcast Center is the court because it will be my second home for the next four years.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?

There are many things that I admire about Coach Frese, but the one thing that stands out the most is how she turned around Minnesota's program in such a short period of time.

Why should people come to a Maryland women's basketball game this season?

People should come to a Maryland women's basketball game because we are going to be fun to watch and we're going to win games this year.

Charmaine Carr hangs out in the suite lounge and terrace area. The Comcast Center has two large terraces on the suite level and four smaller terraces off the upper concourse to enable fans access to the outside of the building without exiting the game. The suite lounge will offer one more place for Terp fans to go before and during the game.

The Comcast Report On Chrissy

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
The first time I walked into the Comcast Center was night before Midnight Madness. I was amazed. It was hard to believe that I would have the opportunity to play in a facility like this.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
One thing about Coach Frese that I admire is her patience. Out of all of the coaches I have played for, she has more patience than any of them. I think that is one of the reasons why she is such a great coach.

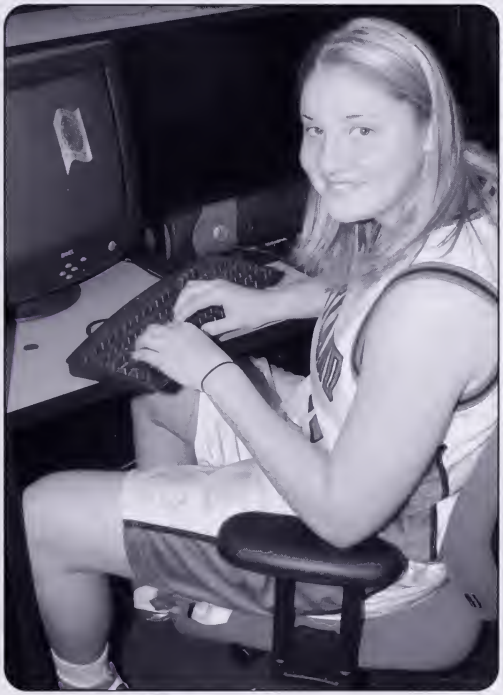
How did you feel at Midnight Madness?
The feeling I had at Midnight Madness was a feeling that I will never forget. It was the first time I was in that type of atmosphere with that many people. It was very overwhelming and exciting. To think that I am given the opportunity to have three more years of it is even more exciting.

Frese On Fisher

"One of the best pure shooters I have coached, Chrissy creates mismatches inside the paint or while stepping out to shoot the three. She is someone who is going to play a lot of minutes for us this season. She is naturally very strong and with a work ethic second to none. Chrissy has a bright future ahead of her."

Before Maryland

The Gannett Press's New Jersey Player of the Year, Fisher scored 1,775 points for Rumson-Fair Haven Regional during her career, compiling a 94-19 team record ... Fisher averaged 4.5 assists per game, 3.1 steals per game and grabbed 1,265 career rebounds ... she finished her career at Rumson-Fair Haven as the second-leading scorer all-time (1,775 points) and the leading rebounder (1,265 rebounds) ... Fisher led Rumson-Fair Haven to three state sectional championships ... in 2002, she received the MSG Player of the Year Award in the tri-state area (New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut), the Kerwin Award for the Most Outstanding girls basketball player in the Jersey Shore area, and the Jersey Sports News Award, which is given to the best girls basketball player ... she was voted first team All-Shore her last three years and was a three-time all-state selection ... coached by George Sourlis.



Chrissy Fisher sits at one of 24 new computer stations in the Academic Support and Career Development area. Student-athletes will utilize more than 7,000 feet of academic space, including tutor and study rooms.

Delvona Oliver

Junior • Center • 6-2

Euclid, Ohio
Euclid High School (Cincinnati State)

54

Frese On Oliver

"Throughout pre-season Delvona began to show glimpses of the skills that made her a high school star back in Cleveland, Ohio. With great hands and 3-point range, Delvona finds ways to score inside and out while still finding a way to domintate the boards at the same time. With her work ethic and conditioning improving every single day, she is going to be a fun player to watch for the next 2 years."

Before Maryland

Earned second-team All-America recognition from the National Junior College Athletic Association while at Cincinnati State in the 2000-01 season ... averaged 18.1 points, 10.5 rebounds and 2.5 blocks per game under head coach Gary McDaniel ... her team finished the season with a 28-6 record, and Oliver garnered most valuable player honors at the Ohio Association of Community College's tournament ... played for Scott Wilson at Euclid High School in Euclid, Ohio, for four years ... was the most valuable player and captain of her team while at Euclid.

Personal Info

The Comcast Report On Delvona

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
I thought "Man, this is an amazing building for a university." The thing I was most impressed by was the court and the restaurant (Nextel Heritage Hall) in Comcast Center.

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center and why?
The locker room because we have our own space and the TV area is really nice. It's somewhere we can chill and watch TV before practice.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
She not only cares about us on the court, but also cares about our careers and you don't get that out of a lot of coaches.

Why should people come to a Maryland women's basketball game this season?
Because we have a new coaching staff and that helps the players. This is a new year and it's game time baby!

Delvona Oliver shows off the view from Nextel Heritage Hall. The reception area overlooks the court and can seat 200 for a sit-down dinner and 400 for a reception-type event. Behind Oliver is the Terps' state-of-the-art eight-sided video scoreboard.

Personal Info

Full Name: Angel Monique Ross
Born: June 30, 1984
Parents: Nathaniel Pendleton and Audrey Ross
Major: Kinesiology

Frese On Ross

"As a freshman, Angel came in and competed right from the start throughout preseason conditioning. A pure athlete, Angel is a force to be reckoned with on the glass, and with her quickness and speed will be one player opponents will have to find a way to slow down in the open court."

Before Maryland

A four-year starter for Midlothian High School, Ross finished her high school career with a 96-18 record ... her sophomore year (1999-2000), USA Today ranked Midlothian 13th in the nation after finishing the season 31-0 and winning the Virginia AAA state championship ... she finished her career with 1,285 points, fifth-best in school history ... she is also the school's all-time leading rebounder, and averaged over 10 rebounds a game her senior year ... nominated to first-ever girl's McDonald's all-star game ... 2002 first team all-state by the Virginia High School Coaches Association ... her senior year she was the player of the year in the Dominion District and first-team All-Met by the Washington Post ... her junior year, she received second-team All-Met recognition and was an all-region pick as well ... a three-time Central Virginia Bank Athlete of the Month ... participated in the AAU National Tournament for six consecutive years and was a member of the James City Blazers ... she also played volleyball at Midlothian, garnering second-team all-district recognition in 1999-2000, 2000-01 and 2001-02 ... her basketball coach was Doug Garrett.

The Comcast Report On Angel

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?

The first time I walked into the Comcast Center, I felt very provileged and lucky to be the first class to play in the arena. This is a great addition to the University's athletic program. The men's basketball Sears trophy impressed me the most because I would like to win a national championship.

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center and why?

My favorite place in Comcast is the court because when I leave Maryland, I will have plenty of memories on it.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?

I admire her as a coach period because I know I would like to coach someday. I am in awe of how she turned the program around at Minnesota.

Angel Ross is standing in the Terrapin women's basketball training room, complete with extra-large Jacuzzi for water treatment. The training room is connected to the women's basketball locker room and lounge areas.

Frese On Ruffin

"At 6'4 Vanessa brings some much needed size to our team. Despite only starting her basketball career four years ago, Vanessa is a hard worker and continues to improve every day. Her great attitude and happy-go-lucky personality makes her a team favorite."

Before Maryland

Scoring over 2,300 points and tallying more than 1,100 rebounds while at Broadfording Christian Academy, Ruffin was honored with nearly every private and Christian school basketball award possible ... after averaging 21.7 points her senior year, she picked up her second Private School Player of the Year award ... also nabbed the National Association of Christian Athletes' Most Outstanding Player award in 2001 and the Best Center award in 2001 and 2002 ... Ruffin blocked over four shots a game and grabbed 11 rebounds per contest ... she earned all-tournament team honors at more than 10 tournaments during her career ... she was named to the all-tri-state area first team in 2001 and '02 ... she was the Washington County Player of the Year in 2002 and received all-county honors her sophomore, junior and senior seasons ... made the Mason-Dixon Christian Conference's all-conference team in 2000, '01 and '02 ... a standout volleyball player as well, she was picked for all-conference honors her final two years ... after averaging over 11 kills per game her senior year and almost six per game her junior season, she was named her school's most valuable player in 2000 and '01 ... coached in high school by Dana Gonzales.

The Comcast Report On Vanessa

What went through your mind the first time you walked into the Comcast Center?
I was excited, nervous, and proud all at the same time. What impressed me the most was the stands... all those seats... if you're not ready, it can be overwhelming.

What is your favorite place in the Comcast Center and why?
My favorite place in the Comcast Center is the women's basketball lounge. It's a place where we can all just chill and watch TV after practice or when we have free time.

What is one thing that you admire about Coach Frese?
I admire her winning attitude. I feel that she has that winning spirit and pushes us to our full capability. When we don't show that same spirit, she brings it out of us.

Why should people come to a Maryland women's basketball game this season?
A new team, a new coach, a new style of basketball: the desire to win is here and it shows every day in practice.

Vanessa Ruffin shows off Maryland's new strength and conditioning room in the Comcast Center. The Terps' weight training room is state-of-the-art and is located just steps away from the women's basketball locker room, auxiliary gym and main arena areas.

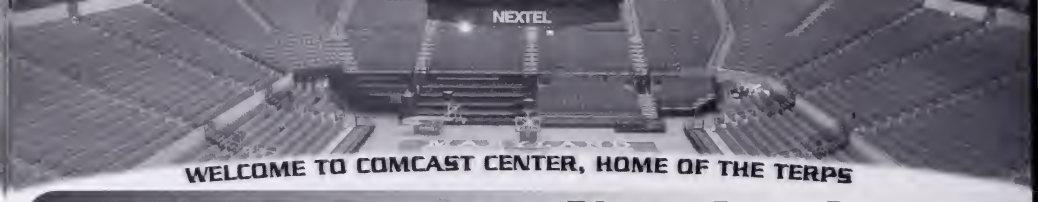
2001-02 SEASON REVIEW



WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

2001-02 Review Notebook

Weller Retires After 27 Years

Only the second head coach in Maryland women's basketball history, Chris Weller retired on March 5, 2001 with 499 wins during her 27-year tenure at Maryland, becoming one of the nation's winningest coaches in the game and leaving the Terrapins with a rich legacy to build on.

Chris Weller

During her career, Weller made 10 Sweet 16 appearances, eight Elite 8 appearances, and three Final Four appearances en route to being ranked in the Top 25 all-time for coaching wins. Her Terps captured an unprecedented eight ACC championships, and she garnered Naismith National Coach of the Year and BWAA Coach of the Year honors in 1992.

Weller was twice named the ACC Coach of the Year during her career, in 1989 and 1992. She coached four All-Americans and eight ACC Tournament MVPs during her tenure at Maryland and her 1992 team was ranked No. 1 in the nation.

Terrapins Receive All-ACC Nods

Several Terrapins picked up ACC honors in 2002, including senior guard Marché Strickland who was named third-team All-ACC. Senior forward Deedee Warley received honorable mention All-ACC honors, just missing the third team by two votes. Junior Renneika Razor received honors on the all-defense team and Anesia Smith was named honorable mention all-freshman. For Strickland, the honor was her second All-ACC accolade; it was Warley's second as well. Razor and Smith each received their first ACC honors with their selection.

Marché Strickland

Duo on All-Time Chart

Seniors Deedee Warley and Marché Strickland both passed the 1,000 career-point milestone in the 2000-01 season. The duo are the 18th and 19th players in Terrapin history to reach the milestone. Warley passed the 1,000-point plateau in her 18-point performance in the upset at then-No. 18 Clemson in 2001, and finished No. 6 all-time with 1,512 career points. Her 12-point effort against Wake Forest on Jan. 24, 2002 propelled her onto the list of Maryland's Top 10 scorers in school history.

Deedee Warley

Strickland reached the milestone exactly on Feb. 15, 2001 at Duke, and ended her career with 1,450 points, which is seventh on Maryland's all-time scoring list. Vicky Bullett is Maryland's all-time leading scorer with 1,928 career points. Former Terp assistant Christy Winters Scott is second with 1,679.

Maryland's All-Time Leading Scorers

1.	Vicky Bullet (1986-89)	1,928
2.	Christy Winters (1987-90)	1,679
3.	Marcia Richardson (1979-84)	1,630

Closing the Doors On Cole Field House

Maryland officially closed Cole Field House as a women's basketball venue at UM on Feb. 21, 2002, during a postgame ceremony, which symbolically gave the building back to the Maryland student body. Cole Field House bears a rich history of milestones and memories for the Maryland program and women's basketball in general. The Terrapin women finished with a record of 277-100 in Cole Field House under Maryland's first coach, Dottie McKnight, and head coach Chris Weller. Maryland has had a winning season 26 out of 28 seasons, and Weller alone is responsible for 270 of the total wins in Cole Field House history.

Among the memorable moments in Cole Field House history is the first televised women's basketball game ever when Maryland met Immaculata on Jan. 26, 1975. The ACC women's basketball regular season attendance record was set at Cole Field House in 1992 when No. 1 Maryland took on No. 2 Virginia and a sellout crowd of 14,500 was in attendance. Additionally, four All-Americans have called Cole Field House home, Vicky Bullett (1986-89), Debbie Lytle (1980-83), Jasmina Perazic (1980-83) and Deanna Tate (1986-89).

Strickland Sets Mark for Games Started

Senior Marché Strickland completed her Terrapin career with 117 starts, a new Maryland record. Strickland started every game since arriving in College Park, and finished fifth on the list of career games played. Classmate Deedee Warley also made the career games started chart at No. 5 to tie with Terp All-American Vicky Bullett with 101 career starts.

Maryland's All-Time Leaders In Games Started

1.	Marché Strickland (1998-2002)	117
2.	Marcia Richardson (1981-84)	113
3.	Sonia Chase (1995-98)	104
4.	Debbie Lytle (1980-83)	103
5.	Deedee Warley (1998-2002)	101
	Vicky Bullett (1986-89)	101

Maryland's All-Time Leaders In Games Played

1.	Christy Winters (1987-90)	123
2.	Marcia Richardson (1981-84)	120
3.	Belinda Pearman (1981-84)	118
	Subrena Rivers (1986-90)	118
5.	Marché Strickland (1998-2002)	117
	Dafne Lee (1989-92)	117

Eight Terps On 50th Anniversary Team

The Atlantic Coast Conference 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team was announced in Sept. 2002 by Commissioner John Swofford. It recognized eight Terrapin women's basketball players for their contributions to ACC basketball including: Vicky Bullett, Tara Heiss, Jessie Hicks, Kris Kirchner, Jasmina Perazic, Marcia Richardson, Deanna Tate and Christy Winters. North Carolina led all league schools with 11 members on the Golden Anniversary team while NC State was second with nine honorees. Virginia and Maryland each had eight players selected, followed by Duke (5), Clemson (4) and Florida State, Georgia Tech and Wake Forest with two.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

The Closing Of Cole Field House

Home of Maryland Women's Basketball: 1973-2002

Chris Weller celebrated the final game in Cole Field House with many of her former players.

Cole Field House served as the home of Maryland women's basketball for 29 years, beginning in the 1973-74 season and concluding last season, 2001-02. The Terrapins posted an impressive home court record of 277-100 over those 29 seasons and made Cole Field House a place that struck fear in the hearts of conference and national opponents alike. The Terrapin teams that called Cole Field House home won an unprecedented eight ACC titles, went to three Final Fours, eight Elite Eights and 10 Sweet Sixteens. During the Cole Field House Era, Maryland set the ACC attendance record for women's basketball when a record 14,500 turned out for the Virginia/Maryland game on Feb. 11, 1992. Maryland was ranked in the final Top 10 poll nine times and the final Top 25 poll 12 times while in Cole Field House and was also ranked No. 1 during that era.

Jasmina Perazic being recognized.

Deanna Tate, Subrena Rivers, Christy Winters-Scott, Mary Barnes, Dafne Lee.

Myra Waters, Jasmina Perazic, Marcia Richardson and Kim Johnson.

Deanna Tate being honored.

Freshman Smith Leads Terps with 17

COLLEGE PARK, Md. · Anesia Smith made her college debut look easy as the Maryland freshman led all scorers with 17 points off the bench to spark the No. 23-ranked Terrapins to an 84-56 win over Coppin State in the season opener for both schools.

Smith, out of Hayfield High School in Alexandria, Va., shot 6-of-10 from the floor and was perfect on four foul attempts. Overall, Maryland (1-0) shot 51 percent from the floor and converted 28-of-38 free throw attempts. Maryland took a 12-1 run into the intermission to blow open a 32-27 lead, and led 44-28 at the intermission after Smith's two free throws with no time on the clock.

In the second half, Coppin State (0-1) never got closer than 11. After closing to 45-34 with 17:25 remaining, Smith and Maryland's veterans outscored the Eagles 12-3 to push the lead to 20, 57-37, with 12:23 to play.

For Coppin State, Shannon Muir scored 16 points on 7-of-12 shooting off the bench.

Redshirt sophomore Vicki Brick added 13 points for Maryland, and team highs with six rebounds and five assists in her first game back after a torn ligament forced her to miss the entire 2000-01 season. Senior center Rosita Melbourne added 10 points and five rebounds in the Terps' successful regular season opener.

Smith Leads Maryland Again With 20 Pts.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. · Anesia Smith shot 7-of-14 with four 3-pointers to lead all scorers with 20 points and lead No. 23 Maryland to an 82-51 win over Loyola.

Smith, a freshman who led the Terps with 17 points in their season-opening win against Coppin State, came off the bench in her second college game to provide Maryland with a needed spark. The spark was immediate.

With Maryland (2-0) trailing 12-5 early the contest, Maryland coach Chris Weller brought Smith, Terri Daniels, and sophomores Crystal Washington and Kiki Wimbush off the bench. Smith's first bucket came on her first possession, with 14:01 left in the half. A 3-pointer followed at 12:54, and another at 11:26 to give Maryland a 13-12 lead.

Loyola (1-1) led for the last time at 14-13 before Smith dished to Washington for a layin and a 15-14 Terrapin advantage with 10:17 remaining in the half.

Called a "student of the game" by Weller in comments following the game, Smith played the rest of the half and by the intermission, the freshman boasted 15 points with two assists and two steals. Maryland led 43-30 as Smith made 5-of-8 shots during the half, including three 3-pointers. Wimbush contributed three assists and three steals off the bench, and Washington totaled 12 points, all in the first half, on 6-of-8 shooting.

The Terrapins coasted the rest of the way as Maryland put five players in double figures and led by at least 20 most of the second half. Senior forward Deedee Warley netted 13 points for the Terps while Renneika Razor and Marché Strickland each added 10.

Tough Miss. State Gives Terps First Loss

AMES, Iowa - LaToya Thomas had 29 points and 15 rebounds and Mississippi State rallied from 11 down in the final six minutes to beat No. 22 Maryland 71-61 opening round of the Coaches vs. Cancer Challenge.

Mississippi State (3-0) flustered Maryland with a full-court press and went on a 28-4 run after the Terrapins (2-1) built a 51-40 lead with 6:48 remaining.

Thomas, a preseason All-American, scored 12 points during that stretch and Renea Jones had seven while keying the Lady Bulldogs' defensive pressure.

Jones hit a 3-pointer, a baseline jumper and two free throws and made a steal as Mississippi State ran off 12 straight points to take a 56-53 lead.

Maryland drew to 56-55 on Deedee Warley's basket with 2:16 remaining, but Mississippi State answered quickly. Thomas converted a three-point play after posting up and went on to score the next six points as the Lady Bulldogs pulled away, opening a 68-55 lead with less than a minute to play.

Freshman Tan White scored 15 points for Mississippi State, Jennifer Fambrough had 14 and Jones 13.

Kiki Wimbush led Maryland with 15 points and Marché Strickland scored 11.

Maryland showed great balance after taking a 28-27 halftime lead. A different player scored each of the Terrapins' first six baskets in the second half as they opened a 44-36 lead. Strickland's 3-pointer boosted the lead to 49-38 and Rosita Melbourne sank two free throws to make it 51-40.

Terps' Defense Helps Capture Third Place

AMES, Iowa - Marché Strickland scored 12 points and teammate Renneika Razor shut down DePaul's Lenae Williams as No. 22 Maryland beat the Blue Demons 54-36 for third place in the Coaches vs. Cancer Challenge.

Maryland (3-1) overcame its 21 turnovers because DePaul (2-2) shot only 26 percent (13-of-50). The Blue Demons missed their final 10 shots of the first half, finishing 4-for-22 in the period, and went 10 minutes without scoring in the second half.

Williams, who scored 41 points in a loss to No. 6 Iowa State on Wednesday night, was held to 14 on 6-of-20 shooting. She was 2-for-8 from 3-point range after making eight 3s against Iowa State.

Razor guarded Williams most of the time and made it difficult for her to get shots early. When Williams did get open, the shots did not fall.

Vicki Brick, Deedee Warley and Terri Daniels each scored 10 points for Maryland. Claudette Towers scored nine for DePaul. Until Sarah Kustok made a layup with 7:41 left, Williams and Towers were the only DePaul players with a field goal.

Towers' 3-pointer with 5:30 left in the first half cut Maryland's lead to 20-16 but was DePaul's last basket of the half. Maryland led 26-16 at halftime and was leading 28-20 after Williams scored on a putback with 17:40 remaining.

DePaul did not score again until Kustok's layup, and Maryland built a 38-20 lead.

No. 25 Terps Fall Short In Loss To Flyers

DAYTON, Ohio- The University of Dayton women's basketball team knocked off #25 Maryland (ESPN/USA Today Coaches), 56-53, at UD Arena for its first win of the season. Stefanie Miller led the Flyers with 16 points.

The Flyers jumped out to an early 4-0 lead but Maryland used an 11-2 run to take a five point lead at the 13:28 mark. UD regained the lead, 14-13, on a Kristy Hineline layup but the Terrapins rallied again to take a 20-17 edge with 47 seconds remaining in the first stanza. A three-point play by Hineline tied the game at 20 going into intermission.

The second half featured nine lead changes and eight ties with Maryland (3-2) jumping out to a four point lead on three occasions. Trailing 51-49 with 2:20 left to play, Sarah Schloss nailed her first three pointer of the season to give the Flyers the lead for good at 52-51.

Despite 21 turnovers, the Flyers shot 46 percent from the floor while holding the Terrapins to 35 percent.

Heather Haselman posted her first career double double with career highs of 12 points and 11 boards. Hineline added 11 points. Deedee Warley led Maryland with 19 points and eight rebounds.

Strickland, Warley Pace Terps vs. Richmond

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team (4-2) used 20- and 22-point efforts from Marché Strickland and Deedee Warley, respectively, to earn a commanding 79-70 win over visiting Richmond (2-5) at Cole Field House.

Richmond held the lead for the opening four minutes of play until a 3-pointer by Strickland put the Terps ahead 12-10. The senior shooter would go 2-4 from beyond the arc and register 10 points to pace Maryland in the first half. Maryland never relinquished the advantage again, leading by as many as 13 before the half.

Richmond wouldn't go away, though. Ebony Tanner and Michele Koclanes combined for 23 second-half points for the Spiders, and drew Richmond within three with 43 seconds remaining on a pair of made free throws by Koclanes. The Terps handled the press well down the stretch and executed with precision from the free throw line, led by Warley who was 10-for-12.

Maryland's Rennieka Razor joined Strickland (20 points) and Warley (22 points) in the offensive effort, posting double-digits in the scoring column with 14. Tanner recorded her second double-double of the season, netting 15 points and grabbing 11 rebounds.

Harrell Leads with 21 to Take ACC Opener

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Led by a career-high 21 points from Jamecca Harrell, Maryland got its first ACC win in a 70-59 decision over Clemson on Allfirst Court at Cole Field House.

In the conference opener for both schools, the Terps and Tigers stayed neck-and-neck most of the first half. Maryland's consistent shooting from beyond the arc (6-of-8 in the first half) was the Terps' hallmark throughout the first half. Despite an unbelievable half of long-range shooting, a balanced Clemson attack led by Chrissy Floyd who had seven first-half points gave the Tigers a 27-26 lead at the half.

It was all Maryland in the second half. The Terps ran past Clemson on both ends of the court creating steals and running the court well. Harrell posted Maryland's first double-double of the seven-game old season, grabbing 11 rebounds to go with her 21 points. Previously, Harrell had scored a total only 18 points for the season.

Additionally, sophomore Kiki Wimbush set a new career-best for assists by posting 11 against the Tigers.

Floyd scored 20 points and was the only Tiger in double-figures. Clemson now falls to 3-3. Marché Strickland added 15 points for Maryland, while Terrapin junior Terri Daniels scored a season-high 12 points off the bench.

MARYLAND 65
Terps Lose Close Call to No. 21 PSU

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Penn State had just watched a 14-point lead slip away, and there was no question who the Nittany Lions were looking for to break the tie.

Kelly Mazzante capped a 26-point performance by scoring the tiebreaking layup with 3.9 seconds left, lifting No. 22 Penn State to a 67-65 win.

The Nittany Lions led 53-39 with 8:31 left and 63-56 with two minutes remaining, but Maryland finally pulled even on a 3-pointer by Marché Strickland with 18.1 seconds to go.

PSU answered with Mazzante, who broke free underneath and scored after taking a pass from Courtney Upshaw.

Maryland did its best to deny Mazzante the ball to no avail. After Mazzante scored, time ran out before the Terrapins could launch another shot.

Katrena Carr, playing her second game of the season after returning from a foot injury, scored all 11 of her points in the second half for Penn State.

Crystal Washington scored 16 points for Maryland and Strickland had 14.

"Great comebacks are all right, but it gets frustrating when your put yourself in a position to where you have to come back," Weller said.

The smaller Terrapins were out-rebounded 41-31. Barnes opened the second half with two baskets and a pair of free throws to put Penn State up 37-29.

After Jamecca Harrell answered with five straight points for Maryland, the Nittany Lions led 42-38 before Carr scored six points and Mazzante added a three-point play in an 11-1 run that made it 53-39.

The lead didn't hold up, but Penn State prevailed. The Lions were coming off an overtime loss against No. 25 Old Dominion.

MORGAN STATE 42
Maryland Routs Morgan State

COLLEGE PARK, Md.- Maryland (6-3) raced to a 10-0 lead and a 24-point halftime advantage en route to a 79-42 victory over Morgan State. Terp senior Marché Strickland scored 12 of her game-high 15 points on 5-of-7 shooting in the first half to extend Maryland's series advantage over the Bears to 7-0. Strickland was a key factor as the Terps registered their most lopsided victory since Maryland's 45-point win over Wagner on Nov. 25 of last season.

"We tried to come out hard at the beginning of the game," explained Strickland. "We were focusing on being intense and taking our play to another level."

After the Bears (0-8) cut the Terp lead to 10-8 at 15:18 in the first period, UM jumped back in the driver's seat and took control for good. Crystal Washington led Maryland's deep bench with 12 points and six rebounds as the Terp reserves outscored Morgan State's supporting cast, 41-15.

"Coach Weller has given me an opportunity to play, and our opposition has been concentrating a lot on Marché, Deedee [Warley] and Renneika [Razor]," said Washington, who has totaled 28 points in the last two games. "That has given me an opportunity to score."

All 13 Terps registered points by the game's end and 11 scored by halftime as the Terps shot 49 percent for the game.

Freshman guard Anesia Smith and senior forward Warley were also double-figure scorers for the Terps with 11 and 10, respectively.

For the Bears, senior forward Chanelle Scott led the way with 10 points and five rebounds before fouling out.

The victory marked the second time the Terps held an opponent to under 40 points. Maryland downed DePaul, 54-36, on Nov. 23 at the Coaches vs. Cancer Challenge. UM totaled 40 points off turnovers for the game.

UM Grabs Second Place in Cancun Tourney

COLLEGE PARK, Md.- Maryland played to a second-place finish at the Torneo Cancun de Basquetbol, losing 71-56 to Alabama in Cancun, Mexico.

The Terps posted four players in double figures, led by Marché Strickland who had 13. Scoring was sluggish for both teams in the opening minutes. The Terps managed as much as an eight-point lead in the first half and entered the break up 29-25.

Strickland paced the Terps' first-half efforts just like she did in the opening round, and had 11 points by halftime. Alabama had tied the score at 34 by the first media timeout and the game was tight until Maryland went on a three-minute scoring drought down the stretch.

The Tide capitalized, with Sparkle Smith and LaNisha Cartwell, who scored nine points in the final two minutes, leading the charge. The 12-2 run in the final two minutes secured the victory and the tournament championship for Alabama.

Maryland Gets Record-Filled Win Over UMBC

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Maryland pulled away for a 60-48 win over UMBC at Allfirst Court in Cole Field House. The Terps raise their record to 8-4 before entering the ACC season, while UMBC falls to 4-6.

The Terrapins struggled to a six-point halftime lead, taking only 10 shots in the opening half and weathering 16 first-half turnovers. Maryland's saving grace was its height, with three post players scoring six or more in the first half including eight from starting center Jamecca Harrell. The Terps' ability to hit from the free throw line, going 8-8 in the half, and their .833 shooting percentage from the field also kept Maryland's lead, which it held from start to finish.

UMBC's defense gave the Terps trouble all night, but UM was able to pull away in the second half with a defensive change of its own, going to a man-to-man. The Terps continued to capitalize on their height, outscoring UMBC 30-18 in the paint for the game and sending interior players to the free throw line for 17 of Maryland's 31 attempts.

Harrell led Maryland with 15 points and nine rebounds -- one short of a double-double. Marché Strickland was the only other Terp in double figures, with 10 points.

Shalayna Johnson scored 12 points to lead the Retrievers, while Jessie Brown and Millette Green pitched in 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Maryland's 60-48 win over UMBC was not without its record-breaking qualities. The Terrapins broke the record for field goal percentage in a half, going 10-of-12 for 83.3 percent. The record, previously set against North Carolina on Jan. 28, 1989, was 79.3 percent on 23-of-29 shooting.

The Terps also shattered the record for fewest shot attempts in a game, previously 39 against Georgia Tech. Against UMBC, the Terps took only 26 shots.

UM Falls Short at Duke, 90-74

DURHAM, N.C. - Alana Beard scored 25 of her 35 points in the first half - the fourth-highest total in Duke history - and the 11th-ranked Blue Devils beat Maryland 90-74 Wednesday night.

Iciss Tillis recorded her ACC-leading fifth double-double of the year with 20 points and 12 rebounds. She also had five of Duke's 12 steals.

Beard was 11-for-13 in the first half as the Blue Devils (11-3, 3-0 ACC) took an early lead and never faltered. She also had 11 rebounds.

Marché Strickland scored 17 points to lead the Terrapins (8-6, 1-2).

The Blue Devils shot 60 percent in the first half as they took a 52-34 lead into the dressing room. Duke led 27-18 midway through the first half before Krista Gingrich hit three consecutive 3-pointers to push the Duke lead to 16.

Renneika Razor had 16 points and Deedee Warley 14 for the Terrapins. Maryland shot 53 percent from the field but turned the ball over 20 times.

Terps Topple FSU For Second ACC Win

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Twenty-one points from senior guard Marché Strickland paced Maryland to a 62-50 win over Florida State at Cole Field House. Maryland is now 9-6 (2-2 ACC), with the Seminoles falling to 10-5 (1-3 ACC).

Strickland hit her first three-point basket 40 seconds into the game, putting the Terps up 3-2 and giving Maryland a lead it would never relinquish. The Massachusetts native hit 3-of-6 from beyond the arc in the first half, pacing the Terps to a 32-16 halftime lead. The Terps' defense, led by Renneika Razor, held the Seminoles to their lowest halftime total this year and kept Seminole leading scorer April Traylor scoreless in the opening 20 minutes.

Maryland cruised in the second half, following the lead of steady point guard Vicki Brick, who finished with a career-high 12 assists and played all 40 minutes. Deedee Warley was outstanding on the inside, netting 12 points and grabbing nine rebounds. Rosita Melbourne and Razor finished with 10 and 11 points, respectively. Razor also had four steals.

Florida State struggled with turnovers, committing 17 in the first half and finishing with 23, but won the rebounding battle 40-30. Katelyn Vujas led the Seminoles with 15. Tasheika Morris added 13, all in the second half.

Maryland Falls Short on the Road

ATLANTA, Ga. • Led by the play of post players Sonja Mallory and Regina Tate, Georgia Tech (9-6, 3-3 ACC) rallied to defeat Atlantic Coast Conference foe Maryland (9-7, 2-3 ACC) by a 61-58 score at Alexander Memorial Coliseum.

Maryland jumped on top early, ultimately staking itself a four-point lead at 14-10, with 11:32 to go in the half, on the strength of six points from senior forward Deedee Warley. A tight first half saw three lead changes and eight ties, including the 30-30 score at the end of the period.

The Terrapins found the hot shooting hand as the second half opened up, with Maryland building an eight-point advantage at 44-36 with 10:55 to play as Terri Daniels hit a three-pointer on a pass by Marché Strickland. Tech would not go away, however, staging a 10-2 run over the next 4:47 to tie the score for the 10th time in the game at 46-46 with 6:46 to go. The game was a tight one down the stretch, with Maryland getting as close as one at 59-58, as Daniels made a three-pointer with 15 seconds to play, but was unable to get any closer as the Jackets made a pair of free throws to seal the final 61-58 score.

Mallory led all scorers in the game, as she finished with 18 points, 11 rebounds and three blocks for her second double-double of the year.

Warley led the Terps, as she recorded her first double-double of the season, 15 points and 11 rebounds. Renneika Razor had 12 points for Maryland with Strickland finishing with 11.

Terps Lose First ACC Home Game

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Anna Prillman tied a school record for 3-pointers made in a half with six and led the Virginia women's basketball team to a 52-44 win over Maryland in Cole Field House. Maryland falls to 9-8 (2-4 ACC), while the Cavaliers head home with a 10-7 (3-3 ACC) record.

Maryland and Virginia played a wild opening seven minutes with 10 total fouls being whistled including deep foul trouble for Maryland inside, which forced the Terps to alter their game plan from the get-go. Despite the personnel issues, Maryland held on for a six-point lead heading into halftime after weathering five lead changes. Marché Strickland had 15 of her team-high 18 points in the first half to pace the Terps.

The second half was just as intense, as Maryland tried its hand at a zone defense against the Cavs. That's when Prillman set fire, hitting three long-range bombs in the first five minutes of the second half to give Virginia a lead it would never relinquish. Before the end of the evening, Prillman hit 6-of-7 shots from 3-point range, and added another two points from the free-throw line for her game-high 20 points.

Strickland was the only double-figure scorer for the Terps. Virginia's other leading scorers were Telisha Quarles with 12 points and Brandi Teamer with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Maryland Drops Road Game at Clemson

CLEMSON, S.C. - Marci Glenney scored 19 points and pulled in seven rebounds to lead Clemson to a 60-47 victory over Maryland. The victory increased Clemson's record to 11-7 overall, 3-4 in the ACC, while Maryland fell to 9-9 overall, 2-5 in the ACC.

Glenney led the Lady Tigers with 19 points, including 13 in the first half. Julie Aderhold was the only other double figure scorer for Clemson with 10 points off the bench. Maggie Slosser had four points to go with had eight rebounds.

Maryland was led in scoring by Deedee Warley, who had 15 points and nine rebounds. Jameeca Harrell had 10 points and nine rebounds.

Maryland jumped out to a 9-5 lead in the first six minutes. Terri Daniels scored five points in a row to give the Terps the early lead, but she scored just three points the rest of the game. Clemson then went on an 18-6 run over the next eight minutes and held a 23-15 advantage with 6:38 to go in the first half. Glenney scored eight points during the run. The lead grew to 10 points at intermission, 33-23.

Clemson extended the lead to 46-32 with 11 minutes left when Lakeia Stokes converted a foul line jumper. However, Maryland was not finished. The Terps went on a 10-2 run, holding Clemson to just two points over a six-minute time period. It was 48-42 when Harrell scored on a rebound with 5:52 to play.

That was as close as Maryland could get. Julie Aderhold made two free throws to give Clemson an eight-point lead at 50-42, then Aderhold scored a layup off an in-bounds play. Clemson held the double-digit lead all but one possession the rest of the game.

WAKE FOREST 46

Stellar Second Half Propels Terps To Win

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - In a tale of two halves, Maryland used a 27-point swing from the halftime score to tackle Wake Forest 57-46 in ACC action on Allfirst Court at Cole Field House. The Terrapins raise their record to 10-9 (3-5 ACC), while Wake Forest falls to 9-10 (3-6 ACC).

The first half was all Wake Forest, with the Demon Deacons shooting 63.6 percent (14-of-22) from the floor en route to a 34-18 halftime lead. On the opposite end of the spectrum, Maryland shot only 18 percent (4-of-25) in the first half, while turning the ball over 12 times. Wake Forest sharp-shooter Tonia Brown finished the opening stanza with eight points to lead the Demon Deacons. Marché Strickland managed eight points in the worst half of shooting the Terrapins weathered this year.

In the second half, a role reversal saw Maryland climb back into the game from a 16-point deficit on the backs of seniors Strickland and Deedee Warley. Strickland hit the three-pointer with 9:59 remaining to play to complete the turnaround and put Maryland up by two points after a 25-7 run. From there on it was all Terps. Warley ended the game with her second double-double this season after grabbing 15 of her career-high 17 rebounds and scoring all of 12 her points in the second half. When the buzzer sounded, Maryland had come all the way back to capture the 57-46 win, holding Wake Forest to just 12 points in the second half on 4-of-34 (11.8 percent) shooting from the field.

Wake Forest's Tonia Brown ended the game with 11 points with Erin Ferrell coming off the bench for eight points in a homecoming game of sorts in her backyard. Strickland led all scorers with 18 points, including 5-of-11 from beyond the arc.

Terps Can't Hold On Against Pack & Lose

RALEIGH, N.C. - Four free throws and a steal by Nanna Rivers in the final 22 seconds of the game, sealed a 62-55 victory over Maryland for NC State at Reynolds Coliseum.

Maryland led 22-21 at halftime, fueled by NC State's 14 first-half turnovers. Midway through the second half, the Wolfpack went on a 9-2 run with back-to-back three pointers from freshmen Liz Bailey and Rachel Stockdale to pull out to a 43-34 lead that it never relinquished.

Kaayla Chones continues to lead the Pack in ACC play. The 6-3 sophomore center dominated the Terrapins in the paint for 18 points and 10 rebounds. The double-double marked Chones' fourth out of the Pack's last five games. NC State's Talisha Scates and Amy Simpson combined for 21 of the Pack's 62 points, including 14 in the second half.

NC State welcomed back forward Canisse Moody who had been out of action three weeks after suffering a sprained ankle on January 6. The Wolfpack lost three of the four games with the 6-1 forward out of the lineup. Moody managed to score six points and grab five boards in 23 minutes of action.

Marché Strickland, meanwhile, led the Terps with 18 points and five assists, followed by Crystal Washington, who added 10 more of her own.

The Wolfpack (10-9, 4-4) managed to outshoot Maryland (10-10, 3-6) at the foul line, connecting on 19-of-25 for 76 percent, while the Terps shot only 30 percent.

UM Falls to No. 22 North Carolina 68-57

COLLEGE PARK, Md.- No. 22 North Carolina held onto an 11-point lead from halftime on to secure a 68-57 ACC win over Maryland at Cole Field House. Tar Heel guard Coretta Brown led all scorers with 19 points.

Nikki Teasley led North Carolina's charge in the first half, netting nine points while going three-for-three from beyond the arc. The Tar Heels first-half pressure caused 18 Terrapin turnovers and North Carolina's 11 points off turnovers mirrored the difference between the teams at halftime, as UNC led 36-25.

The 22nd-ranked Tar Heels kept just far enough in front of the Terps in the second half to avoid the threat of an upset. Maryland drew within three points on three separate occasions, but the Terps could come no closer as North Carolina mounted another run each time.

Brown's points paced North Carolina, as it raised its record to 16-6 (6-4 ACC). Veteran shooter Marché Strickland netted 15 points in the Terps' loss. Maryland fell to 10-11 (3-7 ACC).

Terps Drop 11-Point Loss to No. 5 Duke

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Alana Beard scored 19 points to help fifth-ranked Duke overcome a sluggish start and beat Maryland 66-55 for its 10th straight victory.

Duke (19-3, 11-0 Atlantic Coast) came into the game averaging 89.4 points in conference play, but the Blue Devils struggled throughout. Duke went without a basket for the final 8:07 of the first half but hung on for a 30-29 lead at the break.

The 30 points were a season-low against ACC opponents for Duke, but the Blue Devils quickly took command in the second half. They scored the first seven points, and the Terrapins (10-12, 3-8) never drew closer than six thereafter.

Beard, Monique Currie and Vicki Krapohl sparked some second-half runs. Currie got half of her total of 14 and Duke's first 10 of the second half. Her three-point play gave Duke a 40-31 lead with 17:25 left.

Krapohl finished with 12 points, including consecutive 3-pointers for a 54-42 lead with 9:53 remaining. Duke stretched the lead to 64-45 before Maryland made it close by scoring 10 of the game's final 12 points

Renneika Razor led the Terrapins with 16 points, and Marché Strickland added 13.

Maryland worked hard at slowing the Duke offense. The Terrapins often ran time off the clock and used patience to stop the Blue Devils from running. Head coach Chris Weller even put four guards on the floor at times to match Duke's quickness.

Terps Fall at FSU by Five Points

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Behind 16 strong points from senior April Traylor, the Florida State women's basketball team topped Maryland 60-55 in ACC action at the Leon County Civic Center. FSU improved to 12-11 overall and 3-9 in the ACC while the Terrapins fell to 10-13 overall and 3-9 in ACC play.

After scoring the first two points of the half, Florida State held onto the lead until the Tribe forced a tie at 17-17 and then went ahead 19-17 with just over five minutes remaining. The Terps, however, didn't back down and regained the lead, 25-20. Lakesha Springle hit a jumper and then Tasheika Morris made a free throw and hit a three-pointer on FSU's next possession to give the Seminoles a 26-25 lead. Florida State went into the locker room leading 28-27. Maryland was led by Deedee Warley's eight points.

In the second half, Maryland scored first, regained the lead and held onto it until 3:44 was left in the game. Maryland pulled ahead by five twice in the first five minutes of the second half, but FSU finally forced a tie at 49-49 with 4:39 left. Then Traylor, who scored all of her game-high points in the final 21 minutes, hit a three-pointer at the 3:44 mark to give the Seminoles the lead for good. The Terps didn't go down without a fight. After FSU took its largest lead at 56-51, Maryland scored four straight points to get within one, but Springle and Traylor hit free throws down the stretch for the win.

Maryland was led by Renneika Razor, who had 13 points, while Jamecca Harrell grabbed six rebounds to lead the Terps.

Everyone Plays As UM Demolishes IPFW

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Maryland cruised past IPFW 84-50 on Saturday night at Cole Field House. The Terrapins are now 11-13 overall, while the Mastodons fall to 4-20.

Maryland led by as many as 29 in the first half and held IPFW to just 15 points. Jamecca Harrell led all scorers in the opening stanza with 10 points, while Deedee Warley grabbed six rebounds. Points in the paint were dominated by Maryland (26-0), as were rebounds (32-18). The Terps eventually took a 44-15 lead into halftime.

The second half spelled more of the same dominance for the Terps, who ended the game shooting 51 percent from the field and out-rebounding the Mastodons 56-36. Warley finished with 19 points and 12 rebounds for her third double-double of the year. Harrell also ended the night with a double-double, posting 12 points and 10 rebounds. Five Terps notched double-figure scoring efforts in the outing led by Warley.

IPFW was led by Teera Dudley and Amy Gearlds, who each had 12 points.

MARYLAND 81
GEORGIA TECH 70 (OT)

Terps' OT Valentine Win a Sweet One

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Maryland used an all-out overtime effort to pull past Georgia Tech, 81-70, in overtime at Cole Field House. Deedee Warley led all scorers with 21 points, while Terri Daniels earned her first career double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds. Maryland is now 12-13 (4-9 ACC) while Georgia Tech falls to 14-10 (7-7 ACC).

Georgia Tech jumped out to an 8-0 run and held a commanding lead through the 15-minute mark before Maryland woke up and eventually pulled ahead by two points with five minutes remaining in the first half. Georgia Tech pulled ahead again, but Maryland finished out the half by going the length of the floor in 1.4 seconds to draw the Terps within three points heading into the lockerroom, 31-28.

The second half saw nine lead changes and six ties ultimately ending in a deadlock at 61 when the horn sounded to end regulation. Tech's Fallon Stokes launched a 17-point effort in the second half to pace the Yellow Jackets. She ended the night with a career-high 32 points.

In overtime it was all Maryland from beginning to end, featuring a balanced Terrapin attack led by Warley, who had six points, and Daniels, who netted five. The Terps began the extra period with a 9-0 run and never let the Yellow Jackets closer than seven points.

For Georgia Tech, Sonia Mallory ended with a 10-point, 12-rebound double-double and added four blocks. Milli Martinez had five steals to go with her 10 points in the losing effort.

Terrapin redshirt-sophomore Vicki Brick pitched in a solid effort off the bench with 12 points and six assists. Georgia Tech owned the boards with a 44-30 advantage, but it was Maryland who ruled points off turnovers, netting 34 to Georgia Tech's 18 while causing 18 steals. Brick accumulated eight steals, while Jamecca Harrell swatted away five Tech shots.

VIRGINIA 76
MARYLAND 59

Despite Late Comeback, UM Loses at UVa.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. • The Maryland women's basketball team lost 76-59 to Virginia on Sunday afternoon in Charlottesville. In a game that saw Maryland pull within three points with 10:53 remaining, it was good free throw shooting down the stretch and a point-scoring flurry by senior Telisha Guarles that extended UVA's lead to the 17 point deficit the game ended with for the Terps.

Maryland's Marché Strickland had 12 first-half points and Deedee Warley netted 15 in the second half to pace the Terps' offense throughout the game. Warley finished with a game-high 21, while Strickland ended with 18 points.

Guarles led the Cavaliers with 20 points, including 15 in the last eight minutes to squelch the Terps' final charge of the afternoon. Virginia shot almost 60 percent for the game to the Terps' 38 percent and went 6-of-12 (50 percent) from beyond the arc.

Maryland is now 12-14 (4-10 ACC) while Virginia raises its record to 15-10 (8-6 ACC).

Terps Lose Last Game, Finish 277-100

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • It was a historic night as the doors closed on Maryland women's basketball at Cole Field House as the Terps dropped a 66-54 decision to NC State.

More than 40 former Maryland players were on hand to celebrate the Terps' play at Cole and the move to the new state-of-the-art Comcast Center for the 2002-03 season. Maryland finished its women's basketball play at Cole with a record of 277-100.

The final points in a women's game came as Renneika Razor had a put-back layup with 28 seconds left to register the final of 66-54.

The Terps also honored its seniors as Ije Agba, Jamecca Harrell, Rosita Melbourne, Marché Strickland and Deedee Warley all played their final home games in the red, black, gold and white.

NC State jumped out a double-digit lead in the first six minutes at 14-4 and Maryland was never able to gain the lead, cutting the lead to as small as one early in the second half at 33-32. But the Wolfpack had a great shooting night, hitting 59.5 percent of its shots on the way to the victory.

Canisse Moody led the Wolfpack with 16 points and Kaayla Chones chipped in with 14.

Maryland was led by Renneika Razor and Deedee Warley, each of whom scored 13. Jamecca Harrell hauled in 10 rebounds.

Terps Drop Regular Season Finale at Wake

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Maryland lost a 65-47 decision to Wake Forest to end the ACC regular season in Winston-Salem, N.C. The win improves Wake Forest to 12-15, 5-11 in the ACC. Maryland drops to 12-16 overall, 4-12 in the league.

After Maryland opened the scoring with two free throws, the Deacons went on a 20-0 scoring run holding the Terps scoreless for almost 10 minutes. The Deacs built a 22-4 lead at the 7:59 mark, but allowed the Terps to go on an 11-0 run of their own.

Wake Forest led 25-15 at the break. Maryland's 15 points were the fewest scored by the Terps in a half this season.

The Deacons held off UM for most of the second half, but Maryland pulled to within eight points at the 5:53 mark when Renneika Razor, who scored on a putback to make the score 48-40.

Tonia Brown hit consecutive three-pointers to lift the lead back to 13 points. Wake held on for the 18-point victory, converting on 6-of-8 free throws in the closing seconds for the 65-47 final score. Brown finished with a team-high 17 points.

Maryland's Deedee Warley led the Terp effort, playing all 40 minutes and notching a double-double, including game highs in scoring (20 points) and rebounding (10 points). Center Jamecca Harrell added 11 points and nine boards.

Terps Move To Second Round With Win

GREENSBORO, N.C. • Maryland advanced to the ACC Tournament quarterfinal round after defeating Wake Forest 72-66 at the Greensboro Coliseum in the opening round of tournament action.

After playing with a deficit for most of the opening half, Maryland took the lead for the first time on two Deedee Warley free throws with 2:45 remaining in the half. The Terps ended the period up three points after sophomore guard Terri Daniels found senior forward Jamecca Harrell for an easy two-pointer before the break. Despite Wake Forest shooting almost 60 percent (11-19), the Terps took a 29-26 advantage into the lockerroom paced by 10 first-half points by Warley.

Maryland kept the momentum in the second half, opening with a 24-2 run and leading 54-28 with under 10 minutes remaining. Wake Forest was persistent in spite of the 26-point Terrapin lead and came within seven points with 1:35 to play. The Terps hit their free throws down the stretch to hold on for the victory, the first ACC tournament win for any member of the current squad.

Redshirt-sophomore Vicki Brick and senior Rosita Melbourne both had 10 points in the Terps' outstanding second-half effort. Warley ended the night with a game-high 12 points. Maryland shot a season-high 70.6 percent from the field in the second half and outrebounded the Demon Deacons for the game, 35-30. Wake Forest Adele Harris led the Deacs in scoring, finishing with 10 points.

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Nikki Teasley scored 25 points and Coretta Brown added 23 as No. 19 North Carolina beat Maryland 78-53 in the quarterfinals of the ACC tournament.

Candace Sutton added 19 points and 10 rebounds for the Tar Heels, looking for their first tournament title since 1998. Teasley was 7-for-12 from the floor and 9-for-11 from the line. She also had five rebounds and five assists.

North Carolina put the game away with a 17-2 run to start the second half, racing to a 54-30 lead with 12:50 to play. Brown and the 6-foot-6 Sutton combined to score 10 points in the paint during the run.

Jamecca Harrell and Marché Strickland scored 10 points each to lead the Terps. Maryland hung close early and trailed 23-20 with 4:23 left before halftime. Teasley scored 11 straight points, however, hitting two 3-pointers and two driving layups to help the Tar Heels to a 37-28 halftime edge.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

The Atlantic Coast Conference

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 50th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 85 national champion-ships, including 43 in women's competition and 42 in men's. In addition, 120 men and 31 women have earned the coveted title of NCAA champion.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Maryland's victory over Indiana in last year's national title game, ACC teams have captured nine NCAA basketball championships, including five over the last 12 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1938. The nine current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 298-150 for a sterling .664 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, the ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 184-87 (.679) NCAA record, including 51 "Sweet 16" appearances and 18 Final Four berths. Since 1985, 51 of the 92 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Over the last five years, the ACC is the only conference in the nation to have each of its teams ranked at least one week in the Associated Press poll. Even more impressive, since 1990 ACC teams are 161-150 against non-conference ranked opponents.

North Carolina and Duke lead all ACC schools with three NCAA championships each . NC State has two NCAA titles to its credit and Maryland one. The Tar Heels captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982 and 1993 while the Blue Devils won back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992 and their third in 2001. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed last year's crown.

The stature of ACC basketball is defined by its national television exposure. An all-time high 154 televised games involving ACC teams headline the league's 2002-03 schedule, including a record 231 appearances. League teams are slated to make 135 appearances on national television networks. Seventy of the league's 72 regular season conference games, including 42 on national television networks are scheduled to be televised.

2001-02 in Review

The 2001-02 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and six individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 42 national team titles over the last 12 years.

The ACC's 2001-02 national champions were North Carolina in men's soccer, Maryland in men's basketball and Duke in women's golf. Overall, 97 ACC teams took part in post-season play compiling a 94-57-1 (.622) record.

A total of 188 student-athletes from the ACC earned first,second or third-team All-America honors this past year. In addition the ACC produced eight national Players of the Year, two national Rookies of the Year and six national Coach of the Year recipients.

The ACC placed at least one team in the top 10 nationally in 15 of the 25 sports sponsored by the league. In all, 33 ACC teams finished their season with a top 10 ranking.

History of the ACC

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school withdrew from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

All-Time Coaching History

Dottie McKnight

44-17, .721 • 4 Years (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

Chris Weller

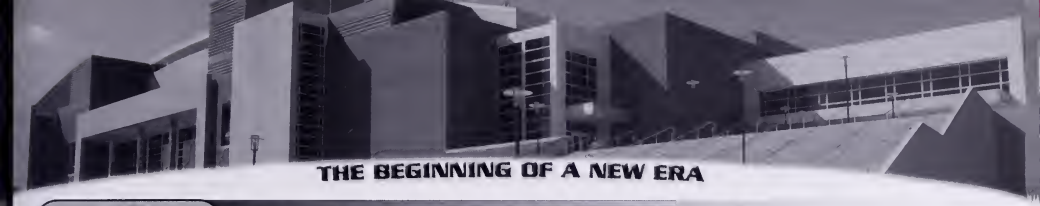
499-286 .636 • 27 Years (1975-2002)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball history. She guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams enjoyed national rankings in 18 seasons and she engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She has been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation.

Brenda Frese

First Year (2002-present)

2002 AP Coach of the Year at Minnesota, Brenda Frese became only the third head coach in Maryland history on April 2, 2002. Frese brings eight years of coaching experience, and owns a 57-30 record in three years as a head coach.



THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

A Salute To Chris Weller

Maryland's Women's Basketball Head Coach (1975-2002)

After 27 years at the Terrapins' helm legendary head coach Chris Weller announced her retirement on March 5, 2002.

Averaging nearly 20 wins per season and having completed 27 seasons as head coach of her alma mater, there are not many, if any, college basketball experiences that Chris Weller missed. Her achievements are remarkable and her contributions to the growth of collegiate women's basketball are documented with the best known coaches in the game. She finished her career in 2002 with the following list of notables:

- Weller remains one of a very small handful of college coaches, men's or women's, to coach 25 seasons at the same institution.
- Weller became only the fifth NCAA Division I coach to earn at least 400 victories at a single institution.
- Her Terrapins were ranked in the Top 10 nationally nine times and the Top 25 on 18 occasions.
- Maryland earned a No. 1 ranking in the nation during much of the 1992 campaign.
- She guided the Terps to three Final Fours, eight Elite Eights, and 10 Sweet 16 appearances.
- Maryland won eight ACC titles, the most by any program. The Terps also won the first ever ACC tournament championship in 1978.
- Weller-guided teams advanced to national championship tournaments in 17 of the last 23 seasons.
- Every four-year class of athletes that Weller brought to Maryland reached the NCAA or AIAW national tournament, and all but five classes since 1975 participated in at least one Sweet Sixteen. All but six advanced to the Elite Eight.

In addition to Weller's accomplishments, her players have experienced personal success as well. Under Weller, the Terrapin program produced five Olympians, three Kodak All-Americans, 28 athletes who participated on national teams and seven players and two coaches who had professional basketball careers. From 1980 to 2002, all but one athlete who finished her eligibility earned a diploma, a tribute to Weller's high expectations for her student-athletes both on and off the court.

Taking over the program in 1975 from Dottie McKnight, success came quickly for Chris Weller. The Terps produced a 20-win season her first year and advanced to the EAIAW Regional Tournament for the first time in program history. The following season she coached the Terps to a final season ranking of 13th, the first of eight consecutive seasons the Terps finished ranked in the Top 20. In 1978 Maryland made its first trip to the national championship recording a 27-4 record, winning the first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference championship and advancing to the AIAW Final Four in Los Angeles, Calif. Maryland went on to win four more conference championships in the following five years along with its second trip to the Final Four in 1982. Maryland advanced to the Sweet 16 both in 1983 and 1984 and the Elite Eight in 1988. The 1989 squad won a school record 29 games that included a 21-game win streak, advanced to the Terps' third Final Four appearance and finished fifth in the Associated Press poll. Maryland averaged a school-record 85.3 points per game in 1989, outscoring its opponents by an average of 19 points per game. Weller was named the ACC and American Sports Foundation's National Coach of the Year in 1989.

Ranked 15th in the 1992 preseason poll, the Terps reached the No. 1 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls for the first time in school history. On January 21, with a record of 15-1, the Terps garnered the top spot and stayed No. 1 through February 11. During that stretch, the largest crowd to ever witness a regular season ACC game took place when the No. 1 Terrapins met the second-ranked Virginia Cavaliers before a sellout crowd of 14,500 at Cole Field House. Maryland finished the season with a 25-6 mark and a final ranking of No. 8. Weller was honored by the press and coaching fraternity for her efforts. She was recognized as the 1992 Naismith National Coach of the Year, the Basketball Writer's Association of America National Coach of the Year, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference National Coach of the Year.

Maryland appeared again in the NCAA championship in 1993 and 1997, as well as the WNIT quarterfinals in 2000.

Weller's Accomplishments

- Ten Sweet 16 appearances
- Eight Elite 8 appearances
- Three Final Four appearances
- An unprecedented eight ACC championships
- Ranks in Top 25 in all-time coaching wins
- Naismith National Coach of the Year, 1992
- BWAA Coach of the Year, 1992
- Converse District III Coach of the Year, 1992
- ACC Coach of the Year, 1989, '92
- Kodak District III Coach of the Year, 1993
- Am. Sports Foundation Coach of the Year, 1989
- Member of the U.S. Olympic Committee, 1985
- Ass't Coach for the U.S. Nat'l Jones Cup Team, 1985
- Head Coach for the U.S. Select Team, 1986, '92, '94
- WBCA Chairperson, NCAA Leg. Committee, 1992-99
- Member of the Kodak All-America Committee
- Member of the USA Women's Basketball Olympic Committee

In 2001, Weller led the Terps were back in the NCAA tournament, receiving their 17th postseason bid. The 2000-01 season was highlighted by sweeps of ACC foes Clemson and NC State. All four wins came when the teams were ranked in the Top 20.

Weller's basketball knowledge and coaching expertise extended beyond the confines of Cole Field House. She was an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup Team in 1985 and the head coach of the U.S. Select Team in 1986, 1992 and 1994.

Weller dedicated herself to the growth of women's basketball in the state of Maryland promoting the formation of the Maryland Coaches' Association. Nationally Weller served as the long-time chairperson of the WBCA Legislative Committee and served as the EAIAW Basketball committee chairperson. Weller was also a member of the Kodak All-American Committee and the U.S. Olympic Committee.

A 1966 Maryland graduate, Weller was a four-year varsity letterwinner in basketball and also participated on the swimming and lacrosse squads. Following graduation, she taught and coached at John F. Kennedy High School in nearby Silver Spring, Md. Weller returned to Maryland for her master's degree in 1973 and became an assistant for two seasons under Dottie McKnight. In 1975, the Weller dynasty began as she was elevated to head coach.

HISTORY AND HONORS

WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

Great Teams & Great Moments

Great Teams and Great Moments define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence and winning seasons nearly 30 years later. Greatness has been synonymous with Terrapin women's hoops. And synonymous with the Terrapins was been Chris Weller who began her Terrapin legacy as first a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant, and eventually, head coach until her retirement in 2002.

The Weller Era was marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings. Here is a chronological look at highlights - great moments - in Lady Terrapin history.

1972-73 State Champions

Maryland wins its first state championship with a 46-43 victory over Morgan State.

1974-75 State Champs/AIAW Regional

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

The first-ever televised women's basketball game.

1975-76 EAIAW Regional

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

1976-77 EAIAW Regional

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

1977-78 ACC Champs/AIAW Finals

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland beats No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

1978-79 ACC Champs/AIAW Quarterfinals

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80 AIAW Quarterfinals

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

1980-81 ACC Champs/AIAW Quarterfinals

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

1981-82 ACC Champs/NCAA Final Four

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four - this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in the first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourth ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28. The Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional and defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the campus' first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terps trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Drake two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Four. Cheyney State upends Maryland 76-66 to end the season on March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP poll marking the highest finish in Maryland history.

Terrapin Tradition

- Final Four Appearances: 3
- National Tournament Appearances: 17
- ACC Championships: 8
- 20-Win Seasons: 11
- Olympians: 5
- All-Americans: 4
- All-ACC: 21
- Rhodes Scholar: 1

1982-83 ACC Champs/NCAA Sweet Sixteen

Maryland tops Rutgers 83-86 on Jan. 26 to run its school record win streak to 16 games to open the season. NC State knocks the Terps from the ranks of unbeaten on Jan. 29, though only five weeks later the Terrapins earn revenge by downing the Wolfpack 84-81 for their fifth ACC crown on March 6. Maryland earns the No. 3 seed in the East Region and defeats Central Michigan on March 19 in an opening-round game. Maryland eventually falls to Old Dominion in the regional semifinal and ends the year with a No. 7 national ranking. The Terps conclude the season as the NCAA leaders in field goal percentage statistics, behind the strength of Kodak All-American Jasmina Perazic - Maryland's first to be so honored.

1983-84 NCAA First Round

The Terps fail to win 20 games for the first time in three seasons, but record at least 19 for the seventh straight year. Maryland is ranked 17th in the final AP poll and earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region.

1984-85

Maryland enters the 1984-85 season having been ranked in the AP Top 20 for 128 consecutive weeks – the most by any team in the nation. Weller spends her summer months as an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup team.

1985-86 ACC Champs/NCAA First Round

Success and championships return after just a one-year hiatus. The Terps enter the ACC Tournament as an underdog, yet win their sixth title, defeating NC State, Virginia and North Carolina. Deanna Tate is named MVP of the tournament after downing the Tar Heels 90-74 on March 3. Maryland accepts a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region, and suffers an opening round loss to Ohio State.

1986-87

The Terps exit the ACC Tournament in a semifinal loss to Virginia. It is only the second season in the last 10 that Maryland has failed to reach a national tournament.

1987-88 ACC Champs/NCAA Elite Eight

And back come the Terps again. Not to be denied an ACC title for more than a season at a time, Maryland goes 26-6 overall and never loses in 13 home contests. The Terps take a four-game win streak into the ACC Tournament where they down Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia, and claim a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Deanna Tate wins her second straight tourney MVP award as the Terrapins hold off the Cavaliers, 76-70 on March 7 for their seventh conference crown. They run their streak to nine games with an 81-66 victory over Ohio State in the regional semifinal on March 24. The Terps fall to Auburn in a bid for a third Final Four, but finish 26-6 and return to national prominence. Maryland finishes eighth in the final poll released by USA Today, and ninth by AP. Junior Vicky Bullett breaks Maryland's all-time scoring and rebounding marks with still a year to play, and stars for the U.S. Olympic team during August 1988. She wins a gold medal in the Summer Games while averaging 4.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

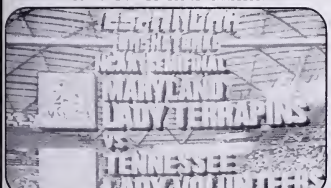
Bullett became the all-time leading scorer in 1988.

1988-89 — ACC Champs/NCAA Final Four

Maryland's most successful season? Perhaps. Vicky Bullett and Deanna Tate both earn Kodak All-America honors as the Terps embark on an all-time best 29-3 record. Included in the mark was another perfect home record, 12-0, which ran Maryland's Cole Field House win streak to 27. On March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia 89-68 to win its 17th consecutive game, a new school record. The Terps won four more games to establish the existing school mark of 21 straight victories. The 18th win of the streak, March 6 against NC State, secures an eighth ACC title. Bullett is named the league's player of the year as Maryland enters the NCAA West Region as the No. 1 seed. Maryland notches win 19 of the streak on March 18 against Bowling Green with a 73-68 opening round win at Cole Field House. The streak grows to 21 with a 79-71 win over Texas on its home floor on March 25, earning the Terps a trip to their third Final Four. On ESPN in a national semifinal on March 31, Maryland watches its season and its streak wind to a close with a 77-65 loss to Tennessee.



UM's Final Four game with Tennessee was on ESPN.

1989-90 — NCAA Sweet Sixteen

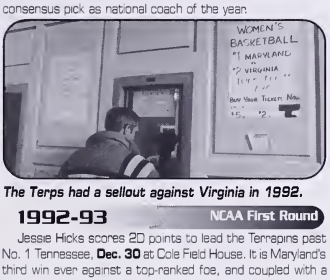
Maryland reaches its third straight NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record. Maryland wins its first home game against George Mason on Nov. 29 to run its record home court win streak to 28 games before falling on Dec. 6 to defending national champ Tennessee. Dafne Lee helps the Terps to an 85-84 overtime win over Wake Forest to begin a four-game win streak heading into the ACC Tournament. In the process, she scores 39 points against the Deamon Deacons to tie the school record. On Feb. 16, Maryland earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region and downs Appalachian State 100-71 for its final win on March 14 at Cole Field House.

1990-91 — NCAA First Round

Maryland wins five straight games at mid-season to help in building a 17-13 mark and earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Maryland advances to the ACC semifinals with a 91-73 win over Georgia Tech.

1991-92 — NCAA Elite Eight

One of the Terps' most exciting seasons saw Maryland finish 25-6 in 1991-92, including the first No. 1 ranking in school history and a Cole Field House sellout crowd of 14,500 to watch No. 1 Maryland and No. 2 Virginia. Prior to that historic, No. 3 Maryland downs top-ranked Virginia 67-65 in Charlottesville on Jan. 15 to mark the second time in history that the Terps had beaten a No. 1 team. The win catapults the Terps to their first-ever No. 1 ranking on Jan. 21, a post they would hold for four weeks. Maryland wins its first five games to defend the ranking and runs its win streak to 11 games overall to set up a Virginia rematch on Feb. 11 at Cole Field House. The Cole sellout still is the largest ACC crowd in history and one of the largest in collegiate women's history. Maryland exits the ACC Tournament after an opening round upset by Georgia Tech, and bows to Western Kentucky in the Mideast Regional finals. The Terps end the season ranked eighth in both national polls, and Chris Weller is a consensus pick as national coach of the year.



The Terps had a sellout against Virginia in 1992.

1992-93 — NCAA First Round

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. The Terps are upset in an opening round game at Cole Field House, 86-82, by Southwest Missouri State. Maryland ends the campaign 22-8, and ranked 11th by the Associated Press and 18th by USA Today.

1993-94

The Terps finish 15-13 while ranking as high as No. 16 during the year. Maryland falls to Virginia in the ACC Tournament semifinals and gets its bubble burst when it fails to earn an NCAA bid for the first time in seven seasons.

1994-95

A promising rookie class of recruits is rated as high as fourth-best in the country, though Maryland finishes 11-18 on the season. Maryland defeats NC State 83-80 at Cole Field House for Chris Weller's 400th career victory on Jan. 28.

1995-96

Maryland upends No. 14 Duke at Cole Field House on Feb. 5, and No. 18 Clemson at Cole a week later on Feb. 10. The Terps finish 13-14, but again advance to the ACC semifinals.

1996-97 — NCAA First Round

In her 22nd season as coach, Chris Weller readies the troops for another run at the NCAA Tournament. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins gain an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

1997-98

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a then-school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

1998-99

A young Terrapin squad overcomes the absence of key seniors to finish seventh in the ACC and capture its third consecutive title in the Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29.

1999-2000

Maryland returns to the national scene as the Terps claim a berth in the 2000 Women's National Invitational Tournament. The Terps advanced all the way to the tournament's quarterfinals before falling to finalist Florida. During the regular season, the Terps recorded a pair of upset victories over ranked teams, defeating No. 12 Duke on Feb. 3 and No. 16 Virginia on Feb. 24. The win over Duke ended the Blue Devils' 20-game home ACC win streak. Tiffany Brown became Maryland's most prolific 3-point shooter, setting the career records for treys made and attempted. She also set the single-game mark with eight at Clemson on Jan. 6. Marché Strickland made five consecutive 3-pointers in a 65-second span against Georgia Tech on Jan. 23. Because of her accomplishment, Strickland gamed national media recognition.

2000-01 — NCAA First Round

The 2000-01 season marks the program's 17th national tournament appearance. The Terps tops then-No. 18 Clemson 85-73 in overtime in Cole Field House and sweeps the season series at Clemson when they are ranked 17th with a 68-62 victory. No. 22 NC State falls to the Terps 57-56 on its home court, and then suffers the 75-54 loss at Cole Field House when they are No. 17. On the doorstep of a Top 25 ranking all season, Maryland loses to Colorado State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament after receiving its first NCAA bid since 1997. Terp juniors Deedee Warley and Marché Strickland score their 1,000th point, Warley in the upset at Clemson and Strickland at Duke on Feb. 15.

2001-02

A distinctive era comes to a close in the 2001-02 season, as 27-year head coach Chris Weller (499-286, .636) says goodbye to Maryland and Cole Field House closes its doors as the home of Terrapin women's basketball. On Feb. 21, with a 66-54 loss to NC State, the Terrapins celebrate their 28 years of memorable moments and championship history in Cole Field House. Weller officially announces her retirement from Maryland on March 5 after celebrating the ACC Tournament's 25th anniversary and the Terps' league-leading eight titles.

WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

Cole Field House

Home of Maryland Women's Basketball (1975-2002)

One of college basketball's finest venues, Cole Field House retired as the home of the Maryland Terrapin basketball teams in 2002.

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's - there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. Despite facing cosmetic renewal, Cole's charisma was never tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and was equalling as thunderous when it closed its doors as the men's team defeated Virginia on March 3, 2002. Cole Field House will always be home to countless memories, buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there were refinements. Additions were made such as an increase in seating capacity to 14,500, scoreboards that not only told the fan what the score was, but also how loud they were cheering, and a new floor design.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held there. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held at Cole in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place there in 1990. Cole Field House also served as the home to most of the athletic department offices.

No. 1 ranked Maryland drew an ACC record 14,500 to its game against No. 2 Virginia on Feb. 12, 1992.

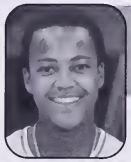
Hometown: Martinsburg, W.Va.
Lettered: 1986-87-88-89

Weller on Bullett

"Those that saw Vicky play recognize her outstanding skill and athleticism. Those that work and play with Vicky know these are only a small part of what makes her special."



Debbie Lytle

A.W.S.I. All-American 1982
Position: Guard • Height: 5-10
Hometown: Philadelphia, Pa.
Lettered: 1980-81-82-83

Weller on Lytle

"Debbie was one of the greatest athletes I've ever seen or coached. She could have been a point guard on a men's college team."

Jasmina Perazic

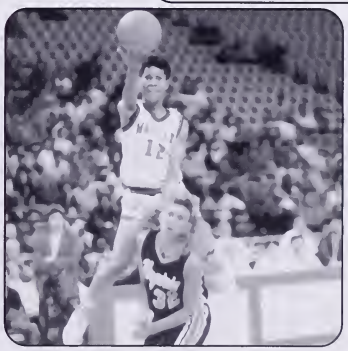
Kodak All-American 1983
Position: Guard-Foward • Height: 6-1
Hometown: Novisad, Yugoslavia
Lettered: 1980-81-82-83

Weller on Perazic

"Jas is a savvy person on and off the court. She had the ability to score in any situation and she has demonstrated that superiority at all levels of play - collegiate and international."

Deanna Tate

Kodak All-American 1989
Position: Guard • Height: 5-8
Hometown: Gastonia, N.C.
Lettered: 1986-88-89



Weller on Tate

"Deanna is the quickest playing and thinking player I've ever coached. Her high energy personality ignites enthusiasm in those around her, on and off the court."

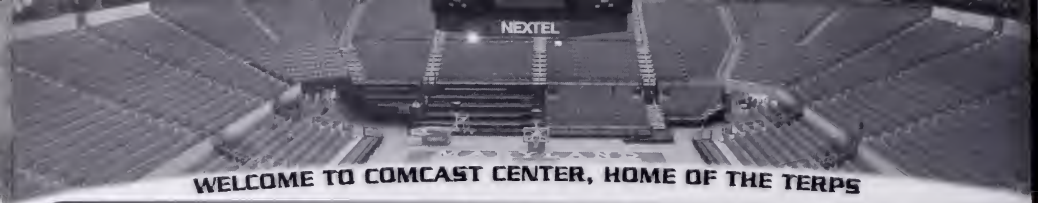
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND



WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

University of Maryland

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Fourteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

About The University

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality, beginning with the quality of our students. For more than 10 years, every freshman class has been the most talented in the university's history, including this year's. Not only are their grade-point averages and SAT scores stellar, about half of them finished in the top 10 percent of their high school graduating class.

But Maryland students excel in more ways than just the classroom. They are leaders in the arts and culture, community service, civic engagement and athletics.

What's more, the student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

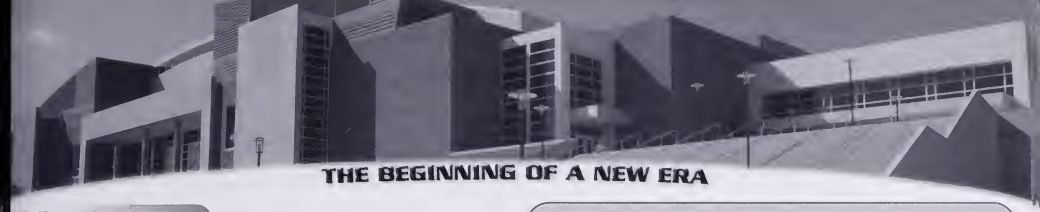
The university has 65 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, reaching $308.5 million for FY 01. Private giving has increased even more dramatically, from $17 million to $77 million in FY01. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, current enrollment stands at 25,099 undergraduate and 9,061 graduate. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs, and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policymaking and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.



THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

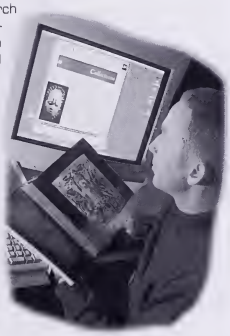
Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.



The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

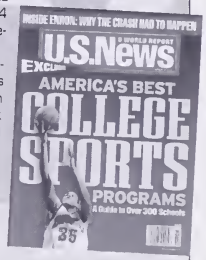
With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The university last year opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, with its six state-of-the art performance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural programming in the Washington metropolitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range of public art throughout the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

Did You Know?

- In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 65 programs ranked among the nation's elite.
- A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.
- Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university 12th in graduating black males with baccalaureate degrees in all disciplines. (Maryland is second among non-historically black schools.) Maryland is 23rd in black male undergraduate enrollment figures among all schools.
- The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 13 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 4 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.



- In the only undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report-business and engineering-both the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 21) and A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 22) were ranked among the top 25. In business, the management information systems specialty was No. 7; entrepreneurship No. 12; general management specialty No. 21; e-commerce No. 8; human resources specialty No. 10. In engineering, the aerospace/aeronautical/astronautical specialty was No. 11.
- An economic impact study conducted by the economists with the Jacob France Center, an applied economics analysis center at the University of Baltimore, concluded that the University of Maryland generates $5.93 of economic activity for every dollar appropriated by the General Assembly, for a total statewide effect of nearly $1.8 billion.
- Maryland appointed William Phillips, a Nobel laureate in physics, to its faculty during the spring. Phillips will establish a world-class atomic, molecular and optical physics group on campus. The Philip Merrill College of Journalism now has five Pulitzer Prize winners on its faculty. A sixth faculty member, Eugene Roberts, directed the Philadelphia Inquirer to multiple Pulitzers as managing editor.

More, Better Students Go To Maryland

The University of Maryland has boasted its best freshman class ever for each of the last 10 years, and the entering freshmen for 2002 are no exception. The academic credentials — high school grades and SAT scores —are again the best ever. And more of those accepted by Maryland are now choosing to enroll here.

This year,half of our freshman finished high school in the top 10 percent of their class. And the average new freshman has taken at least 11 honors or advanced classes in high school. What's more, the student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

What is more remarkable this year is how the university's successes in establishing quality programs - academic and athletic - and cementing a major role in the community, have attracted more of the best students than ever.

In its survey of the colleges of choice of top graduates in Maryland high schools last year, the Washington Post found that more than half picked the University of Maryland. No other single school was even close.

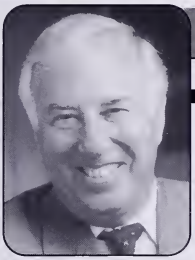
THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA



Dr. C.D. Mote Jr.

University President

(California '51)
Fifth Year at Maryland

When C.D. "Dan" Mote Jr. became the 19th president of the University of Maryland on Sept. 1, 1998 he proclaimed it a university "on the move." Four years later, under his guidance, Maryland continues to move - at an ever accelerating rate - on the field, in the classroom, in the community, and in the world.

The University of Maryland is the state of Maryland's most important asset, says Mote: "The future of the state depends on this university."

Fulfilling that responsibility is a big job, but it's a role that Mote is accustomed to, having spent his entire academic career at the University of California at Berkeley, where he earned all his degrees, taught engineering and eventually became vice chancellor for University Relations before coming to Maryland.

One of Mote's first tasks here was to serve on a governor's task force to examine the funding and organization of the University System of Maryland. The task force recommended, and the General Assembly enacted into law, a reaffirmation of the university's flagship status and a commitment to funding at levels comparable to the best public universities in the nation.

As president, Mote is committed to making that asset even greater by creating a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, continuing to emphasize the highest quality education for students, strengthening the university's internal and external connections, and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere.

The university's progress in each of these areas can be measured by the quality of its programs; the stature of its faculty; the talent of its students; partnerships with business; impact on the state's economy; its ability to apply discoveries to global, national and regional problems; and its world-class, state-of-the-art facilities.

Quality Programs

Over the past decade, Maryland's programs have been improving by leaps and bounds. We currently have 65 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the top 25 nationally by U.S. News & World Report, compared with just one program a decade ago.

While the university's academic successes are across the board, it has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, education and journalism. The Robert H. Smith School of Business has achieved top 10 rankings from such beacon publications as the Financial Times of London and the Wall Street Journal. Every department in the College of Education has programs ranked in the U.S. News top 25, and the Counseling and Personnel Services Program has long been ranked tops in the nation.

Faculty Stature

With the addition during Mote's third year of a Nobel Laureate in Physics and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty), Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. More than 30 faculty are members of the national academies in their fields, the highest professional recognition attainable.

Experts on the Maryland faculty are regularly sought by the news media for their views on a wide variety of issues, including politics, international affairs, social trends, economics, the environment, science and technology.

Talented Students

Over the past 10 years, it has become a virtual cliché to announce that each year's new freshman class is the most talented ever. The average GPA of entering students in fall 2002 is expected to exceed 3.90, while the average SAT score is nearly 1300.

Not surprisingly, the number of students enrolling in honors and other special programs has also skyrocketed in recent years. As many as 40 percent of all new freshmen are now enrolled in such programs as Honors, Gemstone, College Park Scholars and other living-learning communities that bring together students with similar academic interests in a residential setting.

Business Partnerships

In order to fulfill its role as the state's most important asset, Mote has emphasized that the university must be engaged with the business and government communities in substantial and meaningful ways. Under his leadership, Maryland has provided its technological expertise to help the state improve its business processes through a Web portal and has consulted with hundreds of Maryland businesses through its Technology Extension Program.

In recent years, the university also helped to attract Fujitsu Laboratories of America to open a research facility in College Park. Fujitsu, the third-largest communications company in the world, shares a building with the Joint Global Change Research Institute, a research partnership between the university and the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory.

Research with Impact

Sponsored research funding has more than doubled at the University of Maryland since 1990, adding significantly to the university's value as both an economic and an intellectual resource. In FY 2001, the university received $250 million in research grants, much of it directed at projects that will directly improve our social, educational and economic well-being.

Recent highlights of research funding include more than $10 million from the National Science Foundation to study a wide range of issues related to information technology, from hardware to sociological impacts of the Internet. NSF also funded two major teaching initiatives in the College of Education totaling more than $20 million and taking the university's expertise directly into Maryland schools to improve math and science instruction. Mote himself chaired an NSF-sponsored task force last year to study the feasibility of voting over the Internet.

Mote being presented with the NCAA trophy after the 2002 title game.

World-Class Facilities

During Mote's second year in office, the university began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities.

Highlights of the construction activity on the campus include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; Comcast Center, which opened in fall 2002; new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering; extensive renovations to the Adele Stamp Student Union; and new parking structures.

Athletic Excellence

Mote sees athletics as an integral part of the university experience, not just a showcase to impress visitors and friends. Indeed athletic success more often than not reflects academic success, he notes. For example, all four of the teams that played in last season's NCAA basketball Final Four, including Maryland, are members of the prestigious Association of American Universities, the organization that comprises the leading research and academic universities in North America.

"That's no accident," Mote says. "Institutions that are committed to excellence tend to be excellent in every endeavor. Our successes in basketball, lacrosse and other sports reflects our culture of quality as much as our successes in engineering, business, education and journalism."

Deborah A. Yow

Athletics Director

Ninth Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the ninth year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a year that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought about continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's eight years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships as Maryland athletics has soared to new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics two years ago is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges in the U.S. and Canada. She was recently singled out by Street and Smith Sports Business Journal as one of the leading administrators in the U.S. and she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Yow, who recently served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America. Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

• Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.

• Balanced all eight of the annual department's budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $30 million annually and the sizable prior operating debts have been eradicated.

• Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent.

• Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 15 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.

• Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 240 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 275 percent during her tenure at Maryland.

• Implemented a strategic management model.

• Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.

• Significantly improved customer care in every area.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

• Selected in 2002 by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).

• In men's basketball, won the ACC regular season in 2002, as well as the NCAA national championship. In football, won the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl. The Terps are among only a few NCAA institutions to have achieved at this distinguished level in these sports in the same year.

• Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach.

• Hired Dave Cottle, the third winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S.

• Field hockey played for the national championship in 2001.

• Women's lacrosse has continued its winning ways and won seven consecutive national championships through 2001.

• Enhancing football facilities significantly with Team House and practice field upgrades.

• Moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

• The athletics budget was balanced for the eighth consecutive year.

• In 2001-02 10 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play.

• The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past eight years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being a highly organized, strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former coach at the University of Kentucky and at the University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the hiring of new women's basketball coach Brenda Frese, Yow commented, "Coach Frese has a superb record of achievement as a head coach in two different Division I conferences. She is an overachiever ... a dynamic and determined leader as a coach. Over time, she will put our program in a position to compete for the national championship as one of the elite women's basketball programs in the country."

Summing up the entire athletics program, Dr. Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success ... and the basis for our bright future."

Yow being interviewed by the Washington Post's Mark Asher and Ken Denlinger.

Athletics Administration

Kathleen Worthington

Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director

Kathleen Worthington was named associate athletics director for internal operations in May 1999, and promoted to executive senior associate athletics director in September 2002. She came to Maryland from Morehead State University, where she had served as associate athletics director since February 1998 after spending two years as an assistant athletics director.

At Maryland, Worthington is responsible for supervision of the department's internal operations including sports medicine, academic support, facilities and operations, personnel and compliance.

During her time at Morehead State, her primary focus was business operations, policy development, and strategic planning. Prior to Morehead State, Worthington spent two years as the assistant to the AD at the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

She earned her bachelor's degree in mass communications from the College of Notre Dame in Maryland in 1985. She earned a master's degree in public relations from Syracuse and a master's in athletics administration from Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

She was inducted into College of Notre Dame's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997 and in 1999 was named an NCAA Leadership Fellow. In 1996, she earned the graduate student achievement award from University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

Larry Leckonby

Senior Associate Athletics Director Business & Finance/ Chief Financial Officer

Larry Leckonby was hired as the chief financial officer for the athletics department in September. As the department's CFO, he manages the athletic department's annual $38 million operating budget and long-range financial forecasting. In addition, he will have some sport supervision responsibility and be responsible for coordinating departmental construction projects.

Leckonby came to Maryland after serving as the senior associate director of athletics at the University of Houston for the past five years. For Maryland, Leckonby oversees the business operations and advises on financing for facilities enhancements, while focusing on keeping the department fiscally solvent through creative revenue opportunities and various cost containment initiatives.

At Houston, Leckonby was appointed as the senior associate AD in January 1998, with responsibility for the daily administration of the department and specific areas of duty involving finance, planning, fund-raising and marketing. He also served as interim athletics director for six months in 2001 and 2002.

Prior to his arrival at Houston in January 1998, Leckonby served as the associate AD for business affairs at Boston College for four-and-a-half years (1993-98), and the assistant AD for finance and operations at Old Dominion University for five years (1988-93). He was the ticket manager and assistant business manager at Boston University from 1982 to 1988, after beginning his athletics business career at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst where he was an administrative assistant to the business manager beginning in 1981.

A former lacrosse player at Duke University, he graduated with a bachelor's degree in management science in 1979. He earned a master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1983. Leckonby is an active member of the College Athletic Business Managers Association. Besides serving on numerous finance and planning committees during his career, he also has helped direct several NCAA and conference championships including NCAA Baseball Super Regional events in 1999, 2000 and 2002.

He and his wife, Cris, have two daughters, Hunter and Katie, and a son, Liam, and resides in College Park.

Joe Hull

Senior Associate A.D./External Operations

Joe Hull is in his fifth year at the University of Maryland following 12 years in various athletic fund-raising, ticketing and marketing capacities at North Carolina State University.

Hull was promoted to senior associate athletics director for external operations in June 2002 after serving in that role on an interim basis during the previous year. At Maryland, he oversees all fund-raising efforts for the Terrapins' athletic program. During his tenure, athletic fund-raising has increased by 500 percent. Hull also oversees the media relations and marketing offices in addition to the men's and women's tennis teams.

In addition, Hull serves as the point person for the Comcast Center, the university's new arena that opened in October 2002. His duties relevant to the arena process have included coordinating the efforts to find a naming gift, designing and managing a capital campaign to help fund arena construction, and working with the architects, construction manager and Maryland Stadium Authority to design and build the arena.

Prior to his arrival in College Park, he was associate director of the NC State Student Aid Association (Wolfpack Club), which raises more than $7 million annually for athletic scholarships from its more than 14,000 members/contributors. The Wolfpack Club also was responsible for raising more than $50 million for the construction of a 20,000-seat sports arena through a campaign designed by Hull.

Hull earned his bachelor's degree in business management from North Carolina State University in 1978 and played four years of collegiate golf for the Wolfpack while earning ACC Honor Roll status. He also earned a law degree from Campbell University in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1985.

His wife, JoAnn, formerly served as an assistant attorney general for the state of North Carolina. They have two children, Josie (11) and Josh (8).

Dave Haglund

Associate A.D./ Media Relations

Dave Haglund joined the University of Maryland athletic staff in January of 1998 following a 16-year career in the sports information office at Fresno State University. At Maryland he serves as the administrative head of the Terrapins' media relations unit, overseeing the development and implementation of initiatives to provide publicity for the university's 25 varsity sports and more than 600 student-athletes.

He was elevated to associate athletics director in February 1999, and also serves as sports supervisor for gymnastics.

A 1981 graduate of Oregon State University, Haglund began his sports information career as an assistant SID at Fresno State in 1981 and was elevated to sports information director in 1986. During the course of his career at Fresno State, he served as the primary contact person for the Bulldogs' nationally ranked Division I football, basketball, baseball and soccer programs. He also served as information director of the California Bowl (1982-83) for two years.

Haglund and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of two children: Samantha (9) and Matthew (7).

Robert Koonce

Associate A.D./ Academic Support

Robert Koonce joined the Maryland athletic staff in January 2001 as associate athletics director for academic support and career development. Koonce directs all academic support and career development programs and services for the Terps.

Most recently, Koonce served as the assistant athletics director of student services at Tulane for three years. While at Tulane, he was a member of the department's senior cabinet, and managed all aspects of the student services operations, including full-time staff, tutors, and other staff members.

Koonce earned his bachelor's degree in economics and sociology from Union College in Schenectady, N.Y., and his master's degree in higher education administration from the University of Michigan in 1990. Upon graduation from Union College, he was named the assistant dean of admissions and financial aid coordinator of minority recruitment at his alma mater before moving to Michigan.

Koonce worked at Michigan for five years, eventually assuming the responsibilities of assistant academic advisor in the department of intercollegiate athletics for the last three years. He then moved to Skidmore College where he served as the assistant director of admissions/coordinator of multicultural recruitment for a short time in 1995 before entering a three-year stint at the University of Pennsylvania as the assistant athletics director of academic services and recruitment before joining the Tulane staff.

Koonce and his wife Angela reside in Bowie.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

Shawn Flynn

Associate A.D./ Internal Operations

Shawn Flynn is in his first year as associate athletics director for internal operations and championships coordinator. He is responsible for overseeing baseball, men's lacrosse, men's soccer, women's soccer, and the men's and women's swimming programs. In addition, he supervises the facilities and operations unit.

Flynn came to Maryland in 1998 as a graduate assistant for Intramurals and Sports Clubs with Campus Recreation Services. In 1990 he was hired as the Campus Recreation Coordinator for Facilities and Sports Clubs. In that role he administered a 25-club Sport Club Program in addition to establishing a First-Aid/CPR program. In 1994 his responsibilities expanded when he was promoted to assistant director for facilities and sports clubs.

Two years later Flynn was promoted to associate director for facilities. He played an integral role in the development, opening and operation of two major facility initiatives, the Campus Recreation Center and Ritchie Coliseum. Flynn served as the department liaison with various campus departments and worked with university committees and working groups. Flynn was the event director for the 1999 and 2000 FINA United States Swimming World Cup.

In addition to his work at Campus Recreation Services, Flynn served as the site director for the Nationals Futures Tournament/Super Camp for the United States Field Hockey Association since 1996. He was also a member of the 2000 U.S. Swimming Olympic Trials event team and has assisted the Washington Regional 2012 Coalition.

Flynn earned his bachelor of arts degree in business/economics from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown in 1988. He went on to earn a master's in kinesiology with a concentration in sport management from the University of Maryland in 1992.

Flynn and his wife Debbie have two children, Shane (7) and Matthew (3).

Curt Callahan

Assistant A.D./ Operations & Facilities

Curt Callahan, a veteran member of the Terrapins' athletic staff, is in his 15th year overseeing Maryland's athletic operations and facilities. He also served as an assistant wrestling coach with the Terps for 23 years under head coach John McHugh. Callahan was named the department's facilities coordinator in 1998 and was elevated to assistant athletics director in 1997.

As the key contact person on operations and facilities, Callahan manages the department's vast athletic complex. In recent years, he played an instrumental role in three major building projects: the upper deck addition to Byrd Stadium, the construction of the Gossett Football Team House, and the completion of the James H. Kehoe Track and Field Facility and Ludwig Field. His game management responsibilities have included overseeing numerous NCAA lacrosse tournaments held in College Park.

His tenure at the university dates to his undergraduate days as a wrestler in the late 1960s, when he played an integral role in the Terps winning four consecutive ACC wrestling championships. Callahan was a two-time conference champion, winning individual titles in 1969 and '70. He was 22-1 as a junior, his only loss coming to NCAA and eventual Olympic champion Dan Gable of Iowa.

Callahan was a two-time qualifier to the U.S. Olympic Trials and final elimination camp. In both 1972 and '76, he finished fourth nationally in Greco-Roman at 149.5 pounds.

Callahan and his wife Sandy reside in Laurel.

Cheryl Harrison

Assistant A.D./ External Operations

Cheryl Harrison was promoted to assistant athletics director for external operations in July 2002 after serving as interim AD for external operations since September 2001.

Harrison is responsible for overseeing the development office, including the Terrapin Club, Major Gifts, M Club and the Walk of Fame and History in addition to funding capital campaign projects.

Harrison came to Maryland in 1996 as the assistant director of major gifts. In July 1997 she was promoted to director of advancement projects and was again promoted in September 1999 to director of development for major gifts. She became the interim AD for external operations in August 2001. Since her arrival in 1996, capital campaign gifts have increased by 300 percent. Harrison planned and implemented campaigns to provide funding to capital campaign projects including the Comcast Center and the expansion and renovation of the Gossett Football Team House. She managed day-to-day activities of the Building Partners Campaign for the Comcast Center that surpassed its $20 million goal. Harrison also managed the execution of travel programs for Terrapin Club members to the 2002 Orange Bowl and 2002 NCAA Final Four.

Prior to her arrival at Maryland, Harrison served as the director of alumni affairs at Winston-Salem State University for nine years.

Harrison graduated from Winston-Salem State University in 1982 with a bachelor's of arts in business administration with a concentration in information systems.

Lisa Peterson

Assistant A.D./ Business

Lisa Peterson is in her seventh year on the athletics staff and her first as assistant athletics director for business operations.

A 1994 graduate of St. John's University, Peterson joined the Maryland staff in January 1997 as assistant business manager. She was promoted to business manager in 1999 and was elevated to her current position in August 2002.

Prior to joining the Terps, she was the assistant business manager at the University of Miami (Fla.) from Sept. 1995 through Jan. 1997. She also worked in the business office at St. John's as an undergraduate and graduate student. She earned her MBA from St. John's in 1997.

At St. John's Peterson was a four-year letterwinner on the track and field team where she captured a Big East title in the hammer throw and set a conference record in the event with a mark of 180-3. She later participated in the U.S. Olympic Trials.

Michael Lipitz

Assistant A.D./ Administration

Michael Lipitz joined the Terps' staff in August 1999 and has served as assistant athletics director for administration since January 2001.

Lipitz works closely with the athletics director in managing the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He is responsible for many of the department's annual reporting requirements, oversees a variety of internal and external projects, and serves as a liaison to Dr. Charles Wellford, the faculty athletic representative, and the Student Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.).

Lipitz also supervises the Terps' wrestling and women's golf programs and manages entertainment bookings in the Comcast Center. Recently, he spearheaded the department's successful recertification through the second-cycle of the NCAA Division I Athletic Certification Self-Study.

Lipitz graduated cum laude from the University of Maryland with a degree in government and politics and concentrations in English and political leadership. He was a four-year varsity starter and two-year co-captain on the men's tennis team and received the Geary F. Eppley Award as the senior letterwinner with the highest overall grade point average.

Before returning to Maryland, Lipitz earned his law degree from Villanova Law School, where he debated for the moot court team and specialized in domestic relations.

Dr. Charles Wellford

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Charles F. Wellford, professor and chair of the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, is in his seventh year as the University of Maryland's faculty athletics representative. In this role, he represents the University of Maryland and its faculty in the institution's relationships with the NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference. Dr. Wellford also serves as director of the Maryland Justice Analysis Center.

He served as president of the Atlantic Coast Conference for the 1999-2000 academic year, and has chaired the University of Maryland's Athletic Council since 1995-96. He previously served on the Athletic Council from 1986-89 and 1992-95.

At the University of Maryland, Dr. Wellford has been involved in a variety of leadership roles. He was interim associate provost for research and for continuing education. He is chair of the law and justice committee at the National Academy of Sciences. He serves on numerous state and federal advisory boards and commissions, and is a past (1995-96) president of the American Society of Criminology (ASC).

Dr. Wellford received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Maryland and his Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Academic Support & Career Dev.

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Robert Koonce, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for seven professional academic counselors, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, the center's extended site is located in the Gossett Football Team House, and includes office space for two professional counselors, a program assistant and a 23-station desktop computer center.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success Program (C.H.A.M.P.S.) and the NCAA Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation. At Maryland, ASCDU offers a variety of programs and services including: prospective student-athlete orientation, academic counseling, NCAA academic eligibility monitoring, academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops, accredited tutorial support, individualized learning program, in addition to the following academic courses: EDCP 108-K (college learning strategies and skills), EDCP 108-M (math learning strategies and skills), and UNIV 100/101 (first-year transitions to the university).

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete. ASCDU hosts the spirit games that bring together student-athletes from various teams to support fellow student-athletes at home events.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging the emotional well-being, personal growth and decision making skills. ASCDU sponsors workshops and seminars that address issues pertinent to the student-athlete, including the HERO Campaign.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club. It is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process and is distributed to more than 800 corporations and businesses across the country. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities. ASCDU community service events include National Student Athlete Day, the Terrapin Enrichment Reading Program (T.E.R.P.) and the Midnight Madness canned food drive.

Sports Medicine

Medical Staff

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Brian M. Crites, M.D.

Head Team Physician
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Dr. Crites is in his first year as team physician. He is a graduate of Indiana University School of Medicine. Dr. Crites completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Duke University Medical Center and his sports medicine fellowship at University of Maryland Medical Center.

Dr. Crites is an assistant professor in the department of orthopaedic surgery at University of Maryland School of Medicine. In addition to his duties at Maryland, he is also the head team physician for the Baltimore Bayhawks professional lacrosse team and an orthopaedic consultant for the Baltimore Ravens and Coppin State University. A two-year starter on the football team at Hanover College, Dr. Crites earned four varsity letters and was team captain.

He and his wife, Susan, are the parents of Ted (7) and Audrey (4).

Yvette Rooks, M.D.

Primary Care Physician

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her fifth year as a primary care physician for Maryland's athletic program. Dr. Rooks graduated from the Upstate Medical School/Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. She completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore. She currently is an assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Dr. Rooks also serves as a team physician at Coppin State.

She graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Albany where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team.

Sean Curtin, M.D.

Primary Care Physician

Sean Curtin is in his fourth year as a primary care physician with the University of Maryland's athletic program. Dr. Curtin is a graduate of the University of Maryland School of Medicine residency and fellowship training programs. He is board certified in both internal medicine and sports medicine.

Dr. Curtin is in private practice in Bel Air, Md., specializing in primary care and sports medicine, and is currently a clinical instructor at the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

Dr. Curtin played collegiate baseball at Villanova. He and his wife, Yolanda, are the parents of Calvin, 6, and Matthew, 4.

Student Health Center

Dr. Sacared Bodison, Dr. Stephen Fahey, Dr. John Lucas and Dr. Janice Ragland are four full-time University Health Center physicians who specialize in sports medicine. Dr. Bodison is the assistant director for medical services at the Health Center and has been involved with the care of student-athletes since 1982. Dr. Fahey is an emergency physician who is in his 16th year working with the Terrapins. Dr. John Lucas, a family practice physician, is in his fourth year of affiliation with the university's athletic teams. All three doctors are available to treat student-athletes daily on an as-needed basis in the Health Center. In addition, Dr. Janice Raglund serves as director of the University Health Center and is a member of the Maryland Athletic Council.

Sandy Worth

Head Trainer

Sandy Worth, who has been affiliated with Maryland's athletic program since 1973, coordinates and directs the medical care for the Terps' football program in addition to her responsibilities as the university's head athletic trainer.

A native of Timonium, Md., Worth supervises and schedules a professional staff of six full-time assistants and approximately 25 student trainers who combine to provide medical assistance to the university's more than 600 student-athletes. Worth, a 1973 graduate of Maryland, joined the Terps' staff that same year as an associate trainer. She was promoted to head trainer in 1992.

During her career at Maryland, Worth has worked directly with five teams that have captured national championships — four in women's lacrosse and one in field hockey. In addition, she was the trainer for the women's basketball program when it won eight ACC titles and advanced to three NCAA Final Fours.

Matt Charvat

Assistant Trainer/ Women's Basketball

Matt Charvat is in his fourth year with the athletic training staff at the University of Maryland, handling responsibility with the football and women's basketball teams. Charvat came to College Park after three years on the training staff at Morehead State, where he worked with the football, women's basketball and baseball teams.

A native of Hinckley, Ohio, Charvat earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio in 1996. He played baseball at Baldwin-Wallace and later worked two summers as a trainer for the Canton-Akron Indians Double A baseball team. Charvat earned his master's degree from Morehead State in exercise science in 1998.

Strength and Conditioning

In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Barry Kagan, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for women's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Barry Kagan
Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach

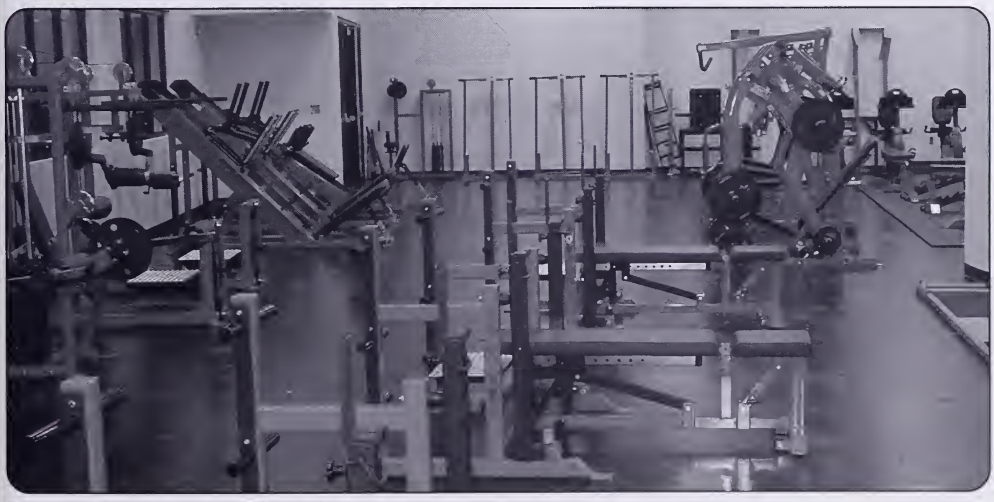
Kagan's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Brenda Frese's trademark. Kagan trains the team so that it will be able to run Frese's style.

The members of the women's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the women's basketball office and the team's locker room in the Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sq. foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained after practice.



The new weight room is more than 4,000 square feet large.

Terrapin Club

Championships Begin With Scholarships

The Terrapin Club is composed of alumni, friends and fans of University of Maryland athletics. Your Terrapin Club contribution provides annual athletic scholarships support to our student-athletes. As a Terrapin Club member, you will enjoy the camaraderie and fellowship unique to this organization. Supporting the Club is a great way to stay connected with the University of Maryland, the state's flagship institution. Most importantly, you will feel the pride and satisfaction in providing a University of Maryland student-athlete with a quality education.

Your donation is vital. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant university funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. We are challenged to fund the 271 full scholarships presently offered and, in the future, to fund the maximum number of scholarships allowed by the NCAA for our 25 sports. We cannot reach this goal without your participation.

Terrapin Club

How Do I Get Involved?

Direct gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

How Much Should I Contribute?

The Terrapin Club is composed of the following levels of membership, with benefits varying by giving level.

Recent Graduate	$25 (year 1 after graduation)	Diamondback	$1,200 - $1,999
Recent Graduate	$75 (year 2 after graduation)	Super Terrapin	$2,000 - $4,999
Silver	$125 - $249	Coaches Club	$5,000 - $9,999
Silver 250	$250 - $599	Top Terp	$10,000 and More
Gold	$600 - $1,199

Still Have Questions?

Call the Terrapin Club at (301) 314-7020 or (800) 653-7667, or refer to our website at www.terrapinclub.com.

"As a scholarship athlete, I was provided with a platform of opportunities ... a chance to make a difference ... Maryland athletics gave me that and more..."

Member, U.S. Track and Field Hall of Fame

"Receiving a scholarship was, in itself, an honor; but more important, it allowed me to spend valuable time participating in internships that prepared me for my career, instead of working my way through school. That scholarship is still paying dividends, years after my time in College Park."

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

Major Gifts Fundraising

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to providing its student athletes the resources they need to excel athletically and academically. It also strives to provide fans an exciting game day environment in which to enjoy the exhilaration of collegiate athletics. The Athletics Major Gifts staff works with alumni and fans to raise funds for facility construction or renovation projects, and endowments for scholarships and programs.

Cooper Jones
Director, Major Gifts

Our current project, the Gossett Football Team House Campaign, is an effort to provide funding so that Coach Ralph Friedgen and his staff and team will have the tools necessary for Maryland Football to resurge as a national powerhouse. The funds raised through this vital campaign will help to make significant improvements to our football facilities and fields. Over 20,000 square feet will be added to the existing team house through this expansion project, with the addition of: (1) an academic support area for football student-athletes that will have fully-wired computer work stations, group study areas and private space for tutoring and counseling; (2) a multi-purpose room with full kitchen that will serve as the team training table for one meal a day, and will provide much needed space for hosting recruits, their families and high school coaches; and (3) a team meeting auditorium that will be fully technologically capable, and will have sufficient space for the team to meet together as a group as they prepare for competitions. As a part of this project, we will also expand the team house entrance and lobby, to include a football Hall of Fame area.

The renovated team house will make a positive and strong impression to prospective players, our team, alumni and visitors, and will ensure that the Terps have the best possible facilities. Without improvement and enhancement of our football facilities, we may not be able to attract the caliber of students who can assist in making Maryland Football exciting, competitive and a source of pride for University of Maryland students, alumni, faculty, staff and fans.

To obtain information on the Gossett Football Team House Campaign, contact the Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, or visit our website at www.terrapinclub.com.

Maryland Educational Foundation

The primary mission of the Maryland Educational Foundation (MEF) is to provide scholarship endowment funds in support of the athletics department's annual athletic scholarship expenses. By supporting talented, deserving student-athletes, donors ensure that our legacy of excellence will continue and grow. For more than 50 years, the MEF has provided financial support for Maryland athletics and is an important part of the department's gift-giving program. The vision of the MEF is to raise enough dollars through private gifts to build an endowment capable of permanently funding many of the athletics scholarships now being awarded.

What is an endowment? An endowment is a gift in which the principal is held in perpetuity, with only the income used (in part or whole) for scholarships. The MEF invites you to discuss gifts such as cash, securities, real estate, insurance, personal property, life income, gifts of pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, charitable gift annuities, wills and bequests. An endowment gift is truly a significant investment in the future of Maryland athletics. Contact the Major Gifts office at 301-314-7020 if you would like more information.

M Club

A 79-Year Tradition of Athletes Helping Athletes

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,200 former Maryland varsity athletes.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for the 25 varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund and support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts. Members receive the monthly athletic department publication (TerpTalk) and electronic newsletters for information about the current teams and news about former teammates.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org. Remember the M Club, "Athletes Helping Athletes."

Fri.-Mon. Mar. 7-10 28th Annual ACC Tournament @ Greensboro, N.C. (Greensboro Coliseum)

Possible NCAA Tournament Games

Schedule is tentative and subject to change.

Terps on TV

Maryland appears four times on the ACC women's basketball TV schedule this season, part of a comprehensive package which features 38 television appearances including 11 national broadcasts. In addition, 25 games appear on the league's regional sports network (Comcast SportsNet, FOX Sports South and Sunshine Network), as well as on ESPN/ESPN2, FOX Sports South and the Sunshine Network.

Nationally recognized Beth Mowins returns to the ACC broadcast team this season, teaming with lead analyst Debbie Antonelli from the WNBA.

For the fifth straight year, ACC LIVE!, a 30-minute pregame show airs before the featured Monday night women's basketball matchup from 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. Mike Hogewood hosts the show.

Maryland appears four times on the regional network this season. The ACC regular season package includes a Sunday game at 1 p.m. and a Monday game at 7:00 p.m. delivered to more than 15 million viewers each week. The 33 live regular season telecasts climax with coverage of the 26th annual ACC Women's Basketball Tournament at the Greensboro Coliseum. This year marks the third consecutive year that a quarterfinal game will be aired, along with both semifinal games and the championship game. The semifinals and championship game will be distributed nationally by FOX Sports Net.

Welcome To Maryland

Maryland basketball is one of the top programs in the nation. Head coach Brenda Frese, her staff and players welcome you to College Park and hope that your stay is enjoyable. Comcast Center is one of the top places in the nation to watch a college basketball game and the program would like to thank you for stopping here. The media relations staff is always available to service you and has prepared this media guide as a source of information which can be referred to all season. Welcome to Maryland. We hope that you enjoy your visit and that we will see you along the college basketball road again.

Before Your Visit

Game credentials are issued to accredited members of the media only. Working space in the press area of Comcast Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area. Credentials should be ordered at least one week before each game and are issued through the Media Relations Office. Requests for credentials should be made in writing and on letterhead stationery to Stephanie Mociun in the Media Relations office. If it is convenient for you to FAX your request, you are welcome to do so. The FAX number in the Media Relations Office is (301) 314-9094. These requests are accepted from Sports Editors and Sports Directors only. The credential requests should be sent so that they reach the Media Relations Office at least one week prior to the desired games. They are carefully screened to insure good working conditions in the press area. When time permits, a working press pass and a parking pass will be mailed. When this is not possible, they will be left at the Press Will Call entrance at the southeast corner of Comcast Center.

Photographers, too, should make their credential requests at least one week in advance. Credential requests for photography passes are welcome. Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made though the Media Relations Office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first come, first served basis.

Game Day Press Parking is located immediately on all four sides of Comcast Center including lots 4 and 9.

Media Work Room

A press work room is available for working media only on the court level of Comcast Center. The media workroom is located just off of the basketball court to your left. A limited number of long distance phone lines are available on a first-come, first serve basis and require a credit card for billing.

The room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome to make themselves comfortable.

Fax Machine Service

Fax machine service will be available. If you need any information faxed to your newspaper, please submit your request to a member of the Media Relations Office.

Press Seating

Press seating is located on the basketball floor in the northeast corner of the arena. The area is manned by members of the Media Relations Office throughout the game. The Media Relations staff desires to help the media be as comfortable as possible during each game.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ERA

Photographers

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in the photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment, along with members of working television media, are given photo passes. Admission to the court and the photo boxes is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic, must shoot from the baselines at the northwest (Maryland bench end/directly in front of press seating) and southeast (visiting bench) corners of the court. Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference policy. Please note that only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) will have access to the photography areas. Photographers are also welcome to shoot from the photo deck on the west side of Comcast Center. Access to the photo deck is from the concourse level opposite the team benches. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Media Relations Office AT ALL TIMES. Failure to comply with their directions will result in expulsion from the arena.

In-Season Interview Policies

All Maryland players and head coach Brenda Frese will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. ALL INTERVIEW REQUESTS must be made through the Media Relations Office, contacting Stephanie Mociun. Please give a minimum of 24 hours notice. Player's individual phone numbers will not be given to the media and game day interviews will not be granted until the end of a game.

The Media Relations Office is located on the second level of Comcast Center in room 2725. The phone number is (301) 314-7064 and the FAX number is (301) 314-9094.

Postgame Press Conference

Postgame interviews with Maryland coach Brenda Frese are held in media room following the game. Coaches from opposing teams will be brought to the media room after each game.

The Maryland locker room is closed to credentialed media. Players will be brought to the media room for postgame interviews at the media's request This is in accordance with ACC rules. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

Postgame Statistics

Statistics packets, including running play-by-play, first half and final boxscores and post-game notes and quotes, are compiled following every game and made available to the media at press row and in the press room.

E-Mail Services

Basketball releases can be obtained electronically by contacting Stephanie Mociun at smociun@wam.umd.edu. List TERP NEWS in the subject heading, and include the name of your media outlet and phone number in your message. (This is a media service only).

WELCOME TO COMCAST CENTER, HOME OF THE TERPS

Comcast Center

Maryland's new student activities building and home of Maryland Athletics was completed in fall 2002. The Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball, and will serve as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

The Terrapins' first public event for basketball was its annual Midnight Madness celebration. The women's basketball team has the honor of holding the first-ever game there, hosting Loyola on Nov. 22. Both basketball teams have state-of-the-art facilities at their fingertips including locker room and lounge areas, training areas complete with jacuzzis, and outstanding weight training facilities.

The Comcast Center also houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's nearly-700 student-athletes on 25 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gym serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and the Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room (capacity 400) is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, large meetings and serve as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Twenty suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans. Maryland's student seating capacity accommodates 4,000, with students ringing the first 10 rows around the floor and a majority of seats on the arena's west wall.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors will learn about the men and women who have made Maryland Athletics great as they stroll through the dramatic Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. And the Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride. Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and athletics home in the country.
